

The Legend Wawasee High School Syracuse, Indiana Volume IX, 1976-77

Yesterday my heart was happy my heart was calm and gay yesterday was wonderful but now it is today.

Vanessa Howard

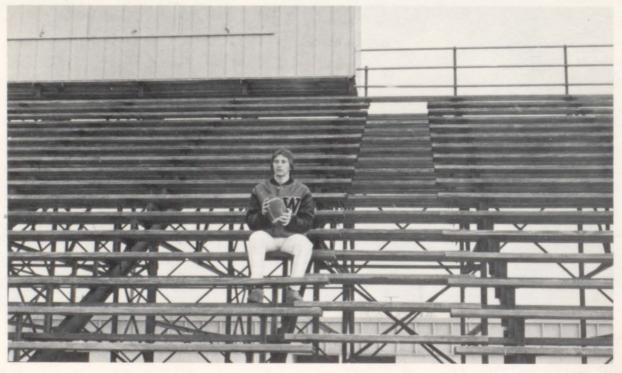

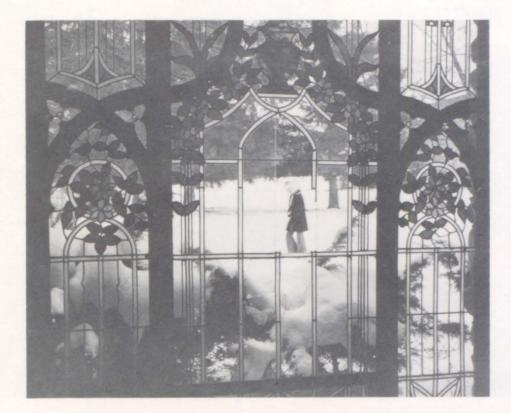

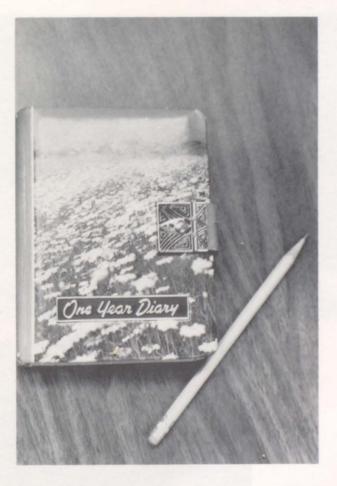

Yesterday's memories add new joy to each new Tomorrow

unknown

Looking at things Not as they are but as they were, not here and now but there and then hazy images of friends and fun and life as it would be (and is now) come into view while recalling little remembrances of tears and smiles sorrow and joy love and . . . hate I begin to pity those who look back at things not as they are but as they were, and have memories that number far too few.

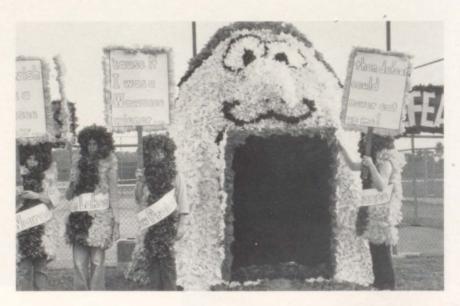

Teresa Carpenter

One of the biggest events of the year, homecoming, was held on October 1st. Weeks were spent preparing for the big night. Band members practiced daily, while club and class members spent a great deal of time stuffing millions of pomps into chickenwire, and the football players worked their hardest. It all paid off with spectacular floats, a fantastic half-time show, and a 49-0 victory over Twin Lakes.

Starting above clockwise: Senior hotdogs, Kathi R., Kathy M. and Dawn P. tangled with defeat; Keith Cripe led the Warriors in; Coach Traviola gave Keith some last minute pointers.

49-0 victory highlights homecoming.

Starting left clockwise: Play it again, Kim B.; Curtis P. stirred Junior flakes, Teresa C., Bryan S., Lorene S., Deb G., Shelley D., Jim W.; Teri S. concentrated on her pom-pon routine; Warrior fans expected a victory. The days were counted down to the big event of the season; Homecoming. The anticipation grew for all involved, football players, coaches, fans, the Queen Candidates and Wawasee's first Homecoming King Candidates. Finally the big moment arrived. Barb Yoder and Mark Francis were named '76 Homecoming Queen and King. Sharing the excitement were Kim Beezley and Tim Hamman who were selected runners-up.

Starting above clockwise: candidates Mark Francis and Barb Yoder; candidates Kim Beezley and Joel Popenfoose; candidate Norm Vanlaningham.

Homecoming '77 crowns first King, Mark Francis and Queen Barb Yoder.

Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow. .

Photographers Susan Shank Dennis Troyer Jane Helvey Terry Smith David Shank Sponsor . . Linda Harkleroad

Starting above clockwise: Mary Clark and Mike Steffen discussed their marriage plans: Nannette Dipert, Jo Hamell and Stephanie Davenport read about Mr. Whiteside's accident: Liz Davenport finally got to see Dan Martin in order to give him a present.

Drama Club enters the world of Theater Arts

Starting above clockwise: Tracy Bartow talked about "Wondrish Joys and Magic Tricks"; Clay Bowman said, "They're worse than chicken thieves this time, Senator -They're Federal men"; "Father, why are you crying?" asked Karen Cooper.

Convos provide interesting entertainment.

Starting above clockwise: Mr. Smith won a face full of pie from the junior class; Joy McDonald entertained the student body with a Country-Bicentennial program; Steve Badskey, John Naab, Joel Popenfoose, Gary Brown, and Tim Hamman sang a Beach Boy medley for the talent show.

Starting below clockwise: Deb Taylor, Nanette Dipert, and Chris Taylor sang as a trio at the annual talent show; Diane Kesler wondered if it was safe to come out during the wild regional pep session; Stan Connerye gave a lecture on Indian life; a Northwood jazz band member played an entertaining solo.

Seniors share an evening of "Visions in Blue."

The '77 Senior Prom was held on May 7 with the theme "Visions in Blue." The gym was transformed into an underwater paradise. Seniors and their guests danced to the music of "Freeway."

Starting above clockwise: Mr. Smith and Mrs. Robinson seemed to enjoy the evening; "'Freeway'' provided the music; seniors and their dates had an evening of music and dancing.

Starting left clockwise: Dan Martin, Paula Grisamer, Judy Drake and her date all headed for the punch bowl: Esti Keen and her escort were ready to enjoy an evening of laughter and dancing: Deb Gerke and Eileen Harbes were Mermaids at the Sandbar.

Seniors face the end of the beginning.

Starting right clockwise: diplomas and roses awaited the seniors; Jennifer Bone and Janet Weaver walked to their seats; Joel Popenfoose sang the National Anthem.

Wawasee held its ninth annual Commencement Exercises on May 22. Two hundred fortyone seniors received their diplomas. The class chose as its motto: "A group we shared the past; individuals we seek the future." Juniors Jim Glon and Beth Silveus led the procession of seniors.

The seniors invade Washington; the city will never be the same.

Starting above clockwise: THE FLAG RAISING AT IWO JIMA; Cindy McCreary found a new friend in the Smithsonian Institute; sitting on the bus in Washington, Tim Morganthaler tried to look excited; Mary Milbern played cards to pass the time on the plane.

Starting left clockwise: After getting up at 2 o'clock in the morning, you can understand why they fell asleep; the group that went on the first Washington trip; Leslie Shenefield, Pam Sheline, and Judy Bachtel took a moment to rest; nobody knows what they were trying to do while hanging over that bridge.

Seniors somehow make it to graduation.

Finally, after such a long wait, our senior year fell upon us - our last year together. Senior year for the Class of '77 turned out to be a year full of worry, planning, anticipation, and excitement. It was also for most of us the busiest and craziest time of all our high school years. A ''what-the-heck-we're-seniors'' attitude allowed many of us to act as crazy as we pleased without caring what the rest of the school thought.

Deb Gray didn't really look like she was reading that paper.

What is to come we know not. But we know That what has been was good.

- from ''What Is to Come'' William Ernest Henley

Starting above clockwise: Gary Webb looked like he was in love again; Bill Martindale showed his approval of himself; Don Minear tried to make Mr. Keiper believe he was studying.

Starting above clockwise: "Thumbs up" for the Senior class!; Kirk Rockenbaugh flashed a "thank-God-it's-Friday" smile; Terri Holtzclaw took a flying leap down the stairs - it's unbelievable that she was on the gymnastics team. Senior year for the class of '77 was, of course, a busy and exciting one. The big event of the year was the freakish snowstorm which kept us out of school ten days during January. In March and April we discussed, planned, and pulled together a great prom with the theme being "Visions in Blue." But too soon May and graduation came upon us. The ceremony was characterized by seriousness and long faces. Suddenly we realized that we had unknowingly flipped our tassels and at the same moment had become graduates.

Starting above clockwise: I wonder what dirty little book Gary Brown was grinning about; Shane Neibert always did enjoy eating his finger; Sam Baumgartner and Marcia Pifer could always be seen munching in the annex; Cheryl Skelton studied.

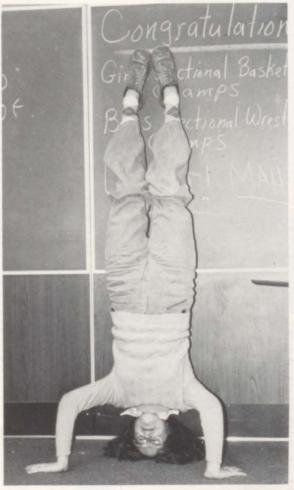

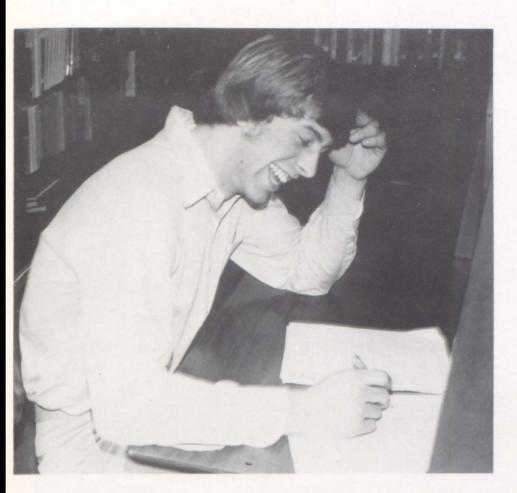

Starting left clockwise: Sue Yoder never got any sleep at home: Cindy Sprague thought that they needed something new in the showcase; look at Dawn Bemish's dimples; Doug Troyer asked, ''Did somebody say party?''; Jeff Hoerr warned the guys about the dangers of Washington, D.C.

Starting above clockwise: the school lunches were pretty funny to Max Sumpter and Dave Firestone; Todd Haines, Gary Brown, and Steve Badskey shuffled off to Buffalo: what was Ginger Gant upset about this time?

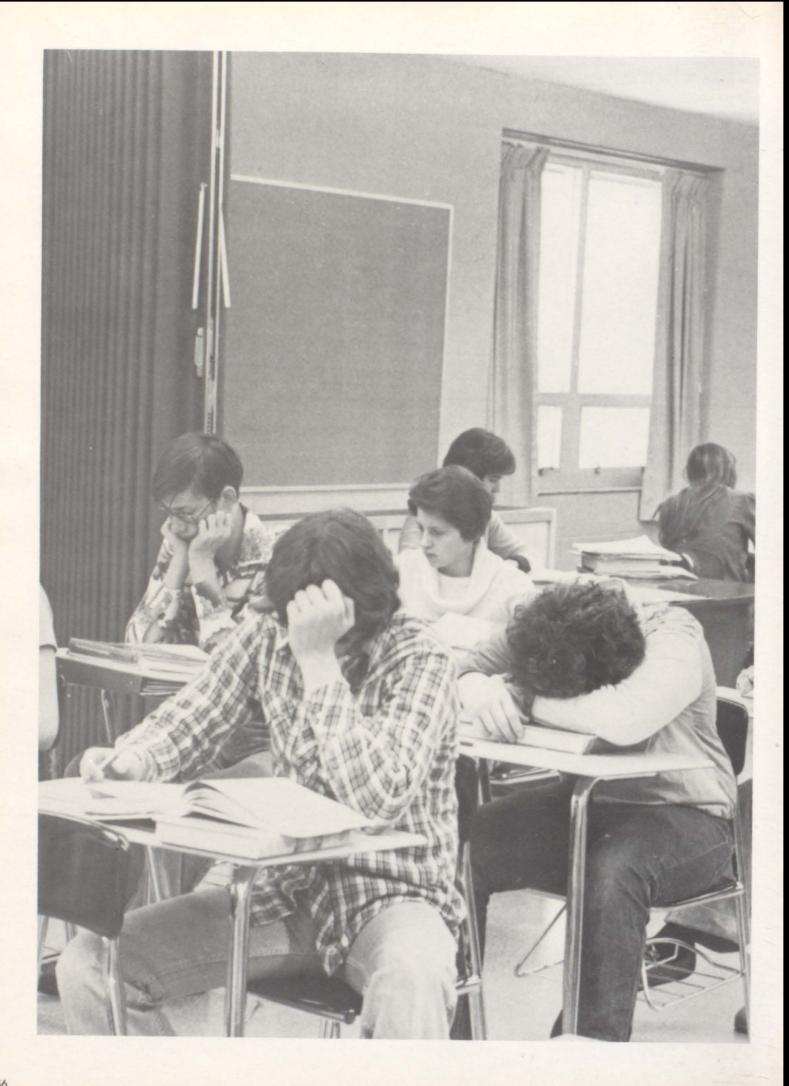

We have fulfilled ourselves, and we can dare, And we can conquer, though we may not share In the rich quiet afterglow what is to come.

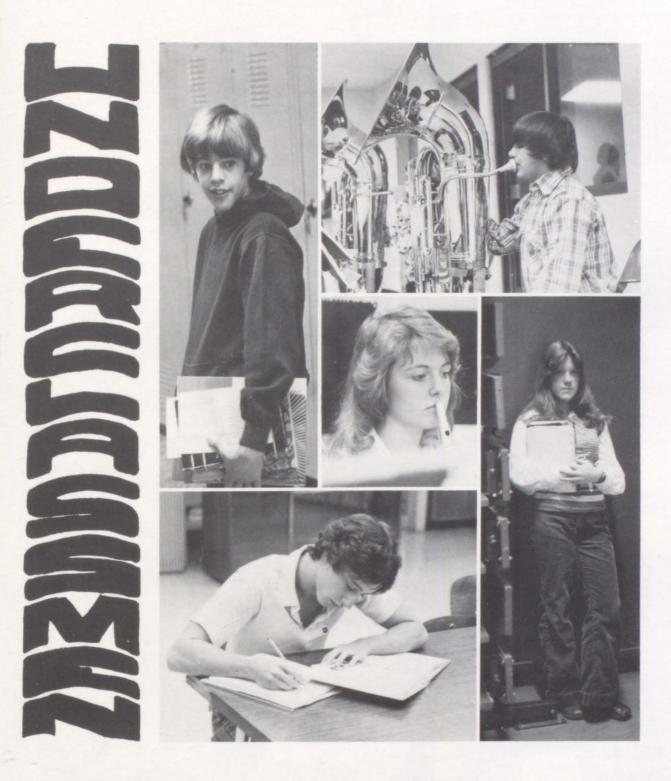

- from ''What is to come'' William Ernest Henley

This page, starting right clockwise: Jim Willits tried to work in study hall: Ken Patton laughed at that answer; Becky Ball and Kim Hill relaxed in the window; Kathy Sweatland tried to hurry before the bell rang. Starting below clockwise: Students in radio class entertained HIT students over the intercom; Mr. Robbins gave some hints; Dennis acted out his deep-seated anxieties.

Language arts laid down the basics in communication and thought so that understanding in other areas might be enriched. Class projects were supplemented by films, magazines, paperbacks, and individual student reports. In addition to the packaged college prep courses, special interest mini courses were available.

Language arts lays the foundation . . .

an easier way . .

Starting right clockwise: "So what's supposed to happen next?" Arnold wanted to know; physical scientists proved that heat rises; Todd often challenged Robert Kitson, B.S. Manchester, M.A. Ball State; Keith Bowman, B.S.F., M.F. Univ. of Michigan.

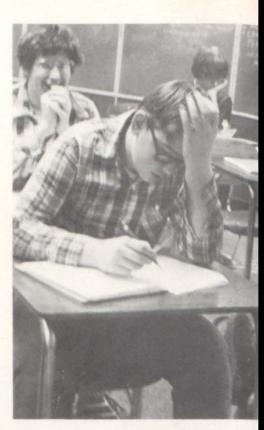

Since a scientist's goal was to discover a better way to sustain life, build complex machines, or synthesize a modern day necessity, it seemed logical someone might develop an easy way of becoming a scientist. Well, that was one of the many ironies of school days! The shipment of brand new science books for all the physical, biological, and chemical sciences presented old concepts in brighter light, and new examinations in sometimes no light at all.

Starting left clockwise: Pamela Juday, B.S. Michigan State; Janie and Kaylon were lab partners; Paul Royer, A.B. Manchester, M.A. Ball State; Bill Kitson, B.S. Manchester, M.A. Ball State; Karl Keiper, B.S. Manchester, M.S. Notre Dame.

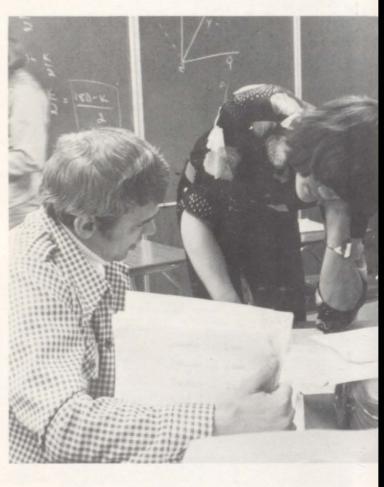

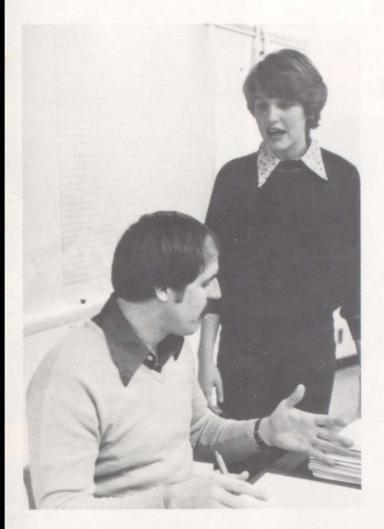

Starting right clockwise: Michael Neff, B.S., M.S. Purdue; Ed finished up a last minute calculation; Terry Frank, B.S. Ball State, M.S. Univ. of New Mexico; Kevin and Phil practiced business math.

No one knew as well as math students the endless ways in which numbers could be juggled. When equations outgrew the integers, the rational numbers were introduced. Digging further into theory, the real numbers were conceived. With the real numbers just about any equation had an answer, but when the ultimate hit-the problem with an answer - imaginary numbers saved the day.

and math adds new dimensions . .

Starting below clockwise: Daryl Umbower, B.A. Grace College, M.S. St. Francis, looked hopelessly at his class; Ted Mahnensmith, B.S., M.S. Manchester; Worth's card was drawn; Jim Webster, B.A. Grace, M.S. Purdue, tried to reason with Laurie.

89

Starting right clockwise: Dr. Kesler analyzed personality using the Roscach test; the members of this encounter group became better acquainted while playing with chocolate balls; Tony Clouse, M.S. I.U., B.S. Manchester.

Social Science tracked man's progress through history analyzing his successes and failures. Seniors prepared for post-graduation independence with instruction in money management, the economic cycle, property purchases, and taxes. Sociology and psychology better acquainted students with their own human nature and how it related to society.

finally, social science harmonizes

the system . . .

Starting left clockwise: Mr. Corson video-taped the Presidential inauguration for his government classes; Vernon Zurcher, B.S. Huntington College, M.A. Ball State; often subject matter in Government came from the NATIONAL OBSERVER; Terry Iden, B.S., M.A. Ball State, prepared Tim for an encounter group in psychology; Hal Traviolia, B.A. Wabash, M.A. Ball State, and Ron Corson, B.A. Manchester, M.A. Ball State plotted their strategy for the next class.

if business ed. keeps the records straight!

"Feet flat on the floor . . . fingers curved . . . back straight . . . ready . . . begin!" The chaotic rhythm of students pecking, pecking away on their typewriters touched on the importance of only one facet of business. In the world of today, every aspect of business training is in demand, and the business department at Wawasee prepared students for employment and provided practical experience as well. Courses in bookkeeping, general business, and office education rounded out our business curriculum.

PRIDE Committees are added to W.H.S. student government!

Last year before school was out, ten students were elected from each class to be members of the PRIDE committees. Almost as soon as school started, the committees started to organize. Their first activity was W.H.S. Homecoming. After working especially hard all of Homecoming week, they ended up with a successful coronation of King and Queen. They also sponsored the dance that followed the football game. Throughout the year the PRIDE committees tried to spread their pride in W.H.S. to other students. They took over the showcase by the vocational office and used it to recognize outstanding students and their achievements. To those students who earned a 4.0 grade average, the committees sent out letters of congratulations and encouragement.

Honor students respond to the lively spirit of academic competition!

National Honor Society started out a fun and educational year with their fall induction. Meeting all the standards set to be inducted were a number of juniors and one senior. As time passed the students got together for a Halloween party in an old haunted barn and later on a Christmas party at Becky Busch's. For a little something different, many students gathered at Sue Gans' house for appetizers and the beginning of a progressive dinner. After the appetizers came salad, soup and the main course, each served at a different person's house. The evening finally came to an end with dessert at Diane Kesler's house.

Wawasee F.E.A. wins state recognition!

F.E.A. continued to be one of the most active clubs at W.H.S. They sponsored Swap Day and the Elf program again this year. Their annual Dress Down was rescheduled from the fall to the spring, but all members attending still had an enjoyable time. The club was also very busy in regional and state competition. At the Area 2 regional, Craig Koble was named winner of the name tag competition with Lin Ummel being selected as Area 2 Miss F.E.A. They continued onto state, entered in the scrapbook and Miss F.E.A. competitions. After having won both of those competitions last year, they were looking forward to more state honors.

Photography Club sponsors contest for local amateurs.

After such a big interest was shown in the photography club last year, they decided to start this year out big. As soon as they got everything together, they held a photo contest for local amateurs. Judging was done by several professionals from the area. During the fall play, all pictures were displayed in the careers room for public viewing.

Let's go skiing: for the fun of it!

With all the snowy weather this year, the ski club really got moving. Like last year they met up at Mt. Wawasee every Tuesday night to ski for as many hours as possible. Also between Christmas vacation and the school days missed because of snow, many members were able to get up there for a little extra practice. With a good skiing season and luckily very few injuries behind them, all of the club members were looking forward to another snowy winter in '78. Hopefully, then, they will also be able to visit other larger ski areas.

Starting above clockwise: Ginger Harris waited for Julie Henning to put her boots on so they could go out and ski; Ski Club Members; Yes, Roger, we liked your hat! Where did you say you got it?; Ted Knudsen put up his skis to go inside and warm up by the fire; Ron Mason grabbed his poles and got ready for a night of skiing.

Art Club visits Nashville, Indiana on field trip!

Greg Miller and Teri Siri looked like they had found a picture they both liked.

Taking off one Saturday morning, the art club ventured to Nashville, Indiana to visit many of its art and craft shops. After a long day in Nashville looking at other people's work, everyone came home inspired to start work on some of their own projects, one of those projects being the annual pumpkin carve. After a lot of laughs by those trying to do the carving, all the pumpkins were taken down to the outdoor court for the entire student body and faculty to enjoy.

Lettermen: W.H.S. sports heros!

Lettermen's Club Members, starting at the top of the "W": N. Vanlaningham, M. Francis, T. Haines, B. Johnson, G. Brown, S. Badskey, D. Ruth, D. Ganz, M. Hoover, A. Wollman, J. Shock, J. C. Wall; row 2: F. Bieber, D. Stewart, R. Hamman, M. Finney, J. Glon, P. McQuillian, G. Brown, K. Lawson, D. Darr, B. Clark, M. Johnston, S. Walker, S. Krug; row 3: P. Greene, B. Replogle, S. Young, S. Badskey, T. Hamman, B. Johnson, S. Lawson, D. Bice.

Varsity Singers aim for top quality in sound!

Starting right clockwise: Deb, you looked comfortable, but what about Joel?; Karen looked like she was trying to persuade Steve to do something he didn't want to do; the Varsity Singers; Teresa, it didn't look like you were doing much singing.

Varsity Singers changed their name since last year, (it was Swing Choir) but they hadn't changed their style. All the singers were still as high spirited and as talented as ever. Along with the other choirs they livened up all the concerts in which they performed.

Wawasee Councils.

The Wawasee Councils did not have an exceptionally busy year, but they were active making decisions. They also hosted students from Munster H.S.

Pom-Pon girls liven up home football and basketball games!

Starting above clockwise: Mitzi, Kim, and Tina tried to stay in time with the music; the Pom-Pon Girls; the Pom-Pon Girls lined up for a routine.

The Pom-Pon girls brought some life and spirit to the half times of both the football and basketball games. Performing to the music of either the Marching Band or the Pep Band, the girls did their thing. With the time and patience of Mr. Blackwell and his wife Connie, the girls always managed to have original and well coordinated routines.

DECA prepares students for future careers!

On-the-job training in the fields of marketing, merchandising and distribution was available to students who were members of DECA. DECA, a national organization, participated in several activities with other DECA clubs from throughout the state. One activity was their district competition held at Scottsdale Mall. Continuing onto state from district competition were several Wawasee club members.

Chris Henning and the rest of the DECA students helped take inventory in the bookstore.

Girls Sports Club helps to keep athletic department running smoothly!

Girls Sports Club Members, left to right, row 1: L. Vangundy, C. Sprague, C. Skelton, D. Bailey, C. Rink; row 2: D. Pittman, K. Cole, D. Gerke, J. Boyer, G. Harris, S. Shank, J. Henning; row 3: J. This year, as in years past, Girls' Sports Club members helped out anywhere and everywhere at W.H.S. The girls could always be found busy at work in the gym, around the track field or around the pool.

Helping to keep G.S.C. running smoothly was not an easy task either. But all the girls had a very rewarding year thanks to Mrs. Hibschman, their sponsor, and the club officers.

Starting above clockwise: Lin, Jan, and Angie waited for the first race of a boys' swim meet; Susan Shank was the announcer at most gymnastics meets; Deb Dieterly tried to organize everything she had to do that night; Daralee, did you just push somebody in the pool?

Fellowship of Christian Athletes brings together athletes and religion.

F.C.A. again held their Superstars competition at Mr. Zurcher's house. He opened up his basement for all members to come and compete. With a variety of different games set up, each person had to choose 7 games in which they would compete for the top honors. The person with the highest scores at the end of the night was the winner. After a fun night of competition, Lorene Spearman was named the female Superstar and Rod Hamman was the male Superstar.

Drama Club performed their first musical last year and it was one of their best performances ever. This year they decided to try another musical. They finally chose FINIAN'S RAINBOW. Planning on a spring debut, everyone involved worked especially hard to produce a fine play.

Mr. Zerkel was always a big help in the production of any play.

Starting above left clockwise: Jeff Hoerr tried the "Sleep-Teach" method while at the yearbook seminar; "Glasses to go, glasses to go, McDonald's has McDonaldland glasses to go!"; Sue what were you doing?; Editor in Chief, Sandy Rinker worked on her pages; as usual, David Shank just sat around being useless; Sue and Esti skipped out of first period to take some pictures. Did you put film in the camera, Sue?; Rachel and Brian helped Donna do some of her underclassmen pages.

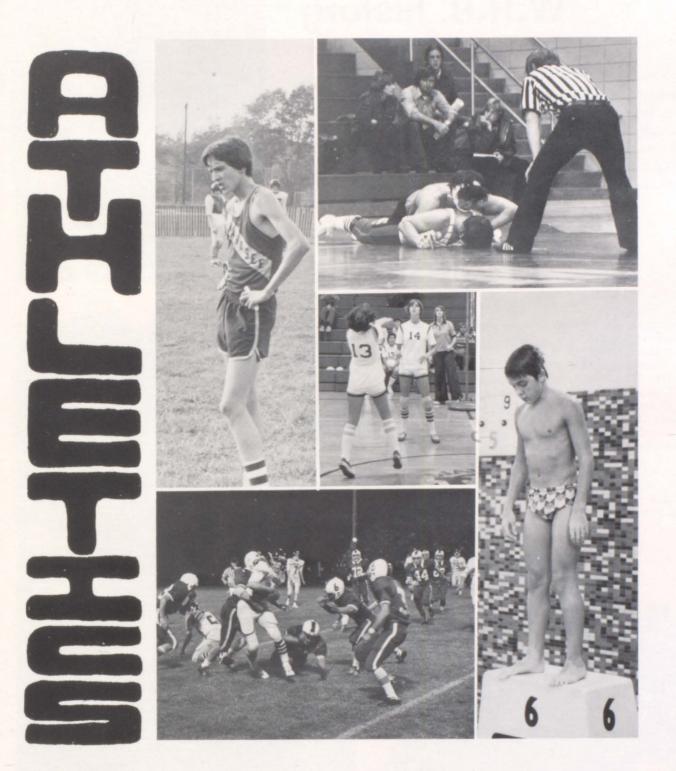

It was a fun and hectic year for the Legend Staff. When we weren't busy working on our pages, we always found something else interesting to do. One thing everybody loved to do was take pictures with the new camera. By the way, did anybody ever think of putting film in the camera?

Starting below clockwise: the Legend Staff members, who knew who all those crazy people were; Rachel, we all got a little scared when someone mentioned ''DEAD-LINE''; Mrs. Harkleroad got sick of correcting all our mistakes.

Track team earns best record in W.H.S. history

Starting above clockwise: Tim Hamman finished in style; Sorry, John, but the Mr. Universe competition was months ago; J. Spittler and Joel Popenfoose relaxed after their events.

The Warrior track team accomplished their best record ever with 12 wins and only 2 losses. The new resolite track provided incentive for 2 new records in track events and one record in a field event. Steve Badskey ran the 2 mile in 10:03; Tim Hamman was clocked on the half mile at 1:59.2; Mike Ousley cleared the high jump bar at 6'4¾". With 4 cindermen on the way to regional and the best high school track in northern Indiana, the squad experienced a successful season.

Starting below clockwise: the Warrior track team, left to right, row 1: V. Gronendyke, J. Waugh, J. Gans, T. Tobin, D. Culbertson, B. Bice, J. Spittler, R. Shipley, T. Kaufman, C. Boyer; row 2: W. Morganthaler; when the gun was fired, it was Wawasee out of the blocks first; Eldon Ummel, Athletic Director, scheduled Warrior events all year long.

Girls' track is 2nd in sectional.

An extra long winter hindered the Wawasee girls' track team from getting their scheduled start for outdoor training. But the sun finally prevailed to shed a little light on an interesting season. Losing strength in field events after the class of '76 passed by, the girls, coached by Marcia Carpenter, retained their overwhelming superiority in the speed contests. They advanced runners in five events to the regional competition at Fort Wayne Concordia. The team was unable to defend last year's sectional title as they placed second behind the powerful Elkhart Central Blue Blazers. Winners were the 440 relay team consisting of Kathy Bice, Barb Yoder, Rhonda Byrd and Lorene Spearman, and Spearman again in the 100 and 220. The 880 and 880 medley relay races, run by Joanna Spearman, Bice, Terri Holtzclaw and Judy Fouts, both placed second behind Central's foursomes.

Starting right clockwise: Lorene Spearman and Judy Fouts endured chilly spring weather as they awaited the next race; Terri Holtzclaw and Barb Yoder held a special taping session; the Warriorette track team, left to right, row 1: D. Grisamer, D. Neibert, P. Greene, R. Hickman, P. Horvath, C. Skelton, B. Boyer, K. Yoder, T. Holtzclaw; row 2: L. Sloan, S. Hoover, P. Custer, B. Yoder, L. Spearman, K. Bice, J. Spearman, J. Boyer, K. Beezley, M. Zurcher; row 3: S. Schacht, K. Rider, L. Brouwer, J. Fouts, B. Busch, R. Byrd, B. Hall, Coach Carpenter.

Gilbert goes to Regional.

Despite only 4 victories in 15 meets, there were bright spots in individual performances. Junior Kevin Gilbert broke the double mile record more than once and finally turned the clock at 12:31 with this performance. He was the first in WHS cross country history to compete in the Regional. Once again, the runners were coached by Jerry Minton.

Starting below clockwise: B. Brown, B. McMillan, S. Bryant and S. Arnold listened intently as Coach Minton instructed, "No tripping, you guys!"; Coach Minton discussed jungle warfare with Kevin Gilbert, Stuart Bryant and Steve Badskey; after the race was over, the distance runners checked their times.

JV Wrestlers also look good.

Following right along with the varsity performance, David Matz's junior varsity and freshman wrestlers produced outstanding records. The reserve matmen didn't receive a single setback in 10 outings. Also, they placed second in both the Goshen and Northwood Invitationals. The freshmen were able to score victories in all but one of their six meets to wind up an exceptional year for warrior wrestling.

Starting right clockwise: Doug Mock awaited the referee's command; the reserve wrestling squad left to right, row 1: M. Richardson, L. Germonprez, C. Bowman, M. Dunithan, M. Strausborger, D. Andrews, D. Mock, T. Hardy, J. Hostetler; row 2: A. Stevens, D. VanLue, T. Harris, G. Sopher, J. Hoover, F. Avery, R. Shipley, M. Troyer, Coach Matz.

Starting below clockwise: it was a good thing the official was there to raise Roger Shipley's arm. He looked too tired; before the match, Coach Frank discussed the plan of attack with Mike Troyer; Coach Matz double checked to make sure his next wrestler was ready.

It was truly an exciting year for Warrior wrestling as the matmen decisively subdued every opponent on the roster. By winning all ten of their scheduled meets, they produced the first no-loss season ever. Not only did they place first in the NLC, they also won the New Haven Invitational, and won the East Noble Sectional title. Champions at the sectional were, by weight class, Terry Rinker -98 lbs., Hal Hammaker - 119 lbs., Vince Gronendyke -138 lbs., Rick Bauman - 177 lbs., John Beer - 185 lbs., and Mitch Ousley - Heavyweight. At the Fort Wayne regional the following Saturday, Beer and Ousley won again, while Rinker placed second. Hammaker and Gronendyke placed third and fourth respectively. Rinker, Beer, and Ousley competed at the Semi-state one week later where Ousley placed fourth after losing his first match all year. He then defaulted in the consolation, after an injury sustained in his second match.

With these powerful performances, the Warriors received a State ranking of 16th. It was indeed a memorable year for Coach Terry Frank and his wrestlers.

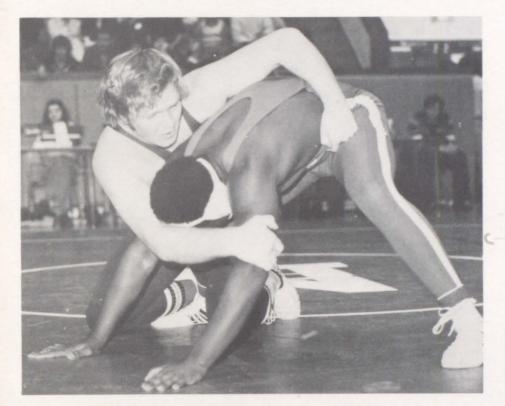

Starting right clockwise: Coach Frank shouted encouragement while Mitch and Phil looked on; the varsity wrestling squad, left to right, row 1: T. Rinker, J. Gerencser, R. Ladner, H. Hammaker, P. Beer, K. Marose, V. Gronendyke; row 2: M. Ousley, J. Beer, R. Bauman, C. Luttman, J. Glon, J. Korenstra, J. Shock, Coach Frank.

Wrestlers rank 16th in State!

Starting below clockwise: Hal Hammaker practiced his favorite pretzel position; Phil Beer applied a little persuasion to his opponent; Mitch Ousley received his first loss of the season at the hands of his Muncie North Opponent in semi-state competition; wrestlers competing at the semistate and their records: Mitch Ousley (21-1), John Beer (18-4-1), Terry Rinker (17-4).

Rinker takes state crown.

This year our gymnastics team once more brought the eyes of Indiana back to Wawasee High School. For just a few of the fine performances, senior Sandy Rinker won the beginners division at the sectional, and went on to compete at the regional. The optional squad, composed of Rhonda Byrd, Kathy Brouwer, Nancy Amos, Barb Yoder, Boody Brewer, Kathy Yoder and Tracy Rinker, was defeated by only 1 point in sectional competition. The spotlight fell on freshman Tracy Rinker as she won sectional, regional and then went on to capture the state title. She not only won the All-Around title, but did so by winning all four events, a first in Indiana high school gymnastics. The girls were coached by Marcia Carpenter.

Divers go to State.

The girls' swim team, coached by Cindy Peterson, defeated nine opponents in fifteen meets. Outstanding performances were turned in by the divers as Nancy Amos and Tracy Rinker placed 10th and 8th in the state respectively. Junior Teresa Carpenter set six new school records and received Most Valuable Swimmer.

Starting left clockwise: Nancy Amos displayed her talent on the diving board; Darsee Staley and Linda Ummel tensed for the crack of the gun; the girls' swim team, left to right, row 1: A. Reed, K. Cole, J. Haffner, T. Taylor, P. Messenger, T. Messenger, S. Adair; row 2: R. Owen, J. Henning, M. Shipley, C. Bryant, A. Long, T. Holtzclaw, N. Amos; row 3: T. Rinker, T. Campbell, L. Gerstner, J. Miller, K. Kirkpatrick, L. Ummel, D. Staley, R. Easley; row 4: Coach Peterson, J. Knudsen, L. Perry, T. Carpenter, L. Bosstick, L. Kroh, B. Brewer, D. Grisamer.

Swim records are broken.

As another new addition to the Wawasee coaching staff, Larry Shook led the swimmers to a 4-8 season. Even though the team was made up of a majority of underclassmen, they placed fourth in the N.L.C. In the Lewis Cass Invitational, the team placed third out of six teams while they also tied for fifth in the Sectional with eleven teams competing.

Fine individual performances were turned in also. Bill Rosenkranz, a junior, won the diving sectional and went on to place 15th in the state. Senior Dennis Troyer set a new diving record while sophomore Steve Rosenkranz bettered the records in the 100 Butterfly and the 200 Individual Medley.

Starting right clockwise: the Warrior swim team, left to right, row 1: M. Sindelar, P. Pavel, J. Gans, J. Pifer, B. Bice, C. Hostetler, T. Snyder; row 2: D. Eisfelder, G. Carpenter, S. Arnold, T. Bartow, M. Wakeland, S. Rosenkranz, D. Hardy: row 3: K. Templeton, B. Hurd, B. Rosenkranz, G. Shand, D. Troyer, D. Ganz, D. Troyer, M. Charlton; Janet Karr and Coach Shook were always present to keep an eye on the swimmers; Dennis Troyer exhibited record setting form.

Starting below clockwise: Bill Rosenkranz didn't get out of the water as easily as he went in; at the coed meets Gary Shand obviously found something more exciting than the race; for the record book, Scott Arnold wore that hat EVERY meet: "Aren't these meets fun?" said Doug Troyer.

New coach builds a strong team.

With Pam Juday in her first year as volleyball coach, the girls earned themselves a winning 7-5 record. Cooperative play was the key and the team narrowly lost in the first round of sectional competition. Only three players will be gone next year, so things looked bright for the spikin' Warriorettes.

Starting below clockwise: rebounding was one of Teresa Carpenter's specialties; Lorene and Bea shared Mr. Webster's interest in the action; the girls' basketball team, left to right, row 1: K. Bice, M. Cox, L. Clark, S. Schacht, K. Replogle, S. Hoover, L. Ummel; row 2: M. Kitson, J. Miller, J. Dye, B. Skelton, L. Boyer, B. Carvajal, B. Hall, C. Skelton; row 3: C. Packer, J. Hepler, J. Hughes, K. Hamman, T. Carpenter, L. Spearman, M. Kitson, D. Bailey, Coach Webster.

Girls take sectional!

It proved to be a long season for the girls' basketball team as they could only muster one win in eleven games. But when sectional time arrived, Jim Webster's Warriorettes pulled it all together. They defeated Bethany Christian in the first game and convincingly beat Northwood 41-36 in the championship to capture Wawasee girls' second consecutive basketball sectional crown.

We'll get 'em next year . . .

This year's freshmen, playing for the first time in Warrior uniforms, experienced a rather unlucky season. For all their valiant efforts, the A-team was unable to produce a win in thirteen games. The B-team fared a little better by managing a 2-7 record. The frosh were coached by George Vitaniemi and Greg Minegar.

Starting right clockwise: Greg Moerchan left the floor for two points; the freshman basketball team, left to right, row 1: J. Beezley, K. Schrock, R. Waugh, K. Rockenbaugh, Mgr., K. Marose, B. Bowser, D. Strombeck; row 2: Coach Vitaniemi, C. Boyer, M. Brannock, D. Meade, T. Harris, E. Shepard, G. Moerchan, M. Murray, D. Hoover, Coach Minegar.

JV has 8-12 season.

Starting left clockwise: Robby Smith got off his last second shot against Whitko; Mark Sumpter prepared to pass around his opponent; the junior varsity basketball players, left to right, row 1: M. Kissinger, M. Strombeck, R. Smith, S. Detwiler, J. Kaiser; row 2: Coach Mahnensmith, P. Stichter, K. Smallwood, B. Nordin, M. Simpson, M. Ray, M. Sumpter.

The junior varsity basketball team started out much the same as the varsity by losing the first seven games. But they pulled it together for a respectable 8-12 season. Big wins were posted over Northwood, Goshen, and Northridge. Coached by Ted Mahnensmith, the reserves looked forward to a spot on next year's varsity squad.

Warriors win sectional!

Starting right clockwise: Keith Cripe went up for two against Manchester; Mark Francis took good care of the little man on the trophy; Norm Vanlaningham took a bad fall against Plymouth at the Elkhart regional; junior Ken Patton was one against an army as he drove to the basket.

For the first time in Wawasee's nine year history, the Warrior basketball team brought the Triton sectional trophy back to a place on our shelf for keeps. After beginning the season with seven straight losses, the team, coached by Jerry Lambert, won eight of the next 13 games.

Although hopes for a sectional crown seemed small, they easily bumped the Rochester Zebras from the lineup in the first game. The real thriller came the following Saturday night when the team was to play defending champs, the Warsaw Tigers. Saved from a heartbreaking defeat by a bucket at the final buzzer, a thunderous Wawasee cheerblock raised their index fingers high in the air at the end of a tense overtime. The Warriors came out on top, 74-70.

With half the community present at the Elkhart regional, the squad finally met a road block in the form of the Plymouth Pilgrims. Plymouth then won the night game for the championship. (Note: The Pilgrims were defeated in the Semi-state by eventual STATE CHAMPIONS, the Carmel Greyhounds.)

Starting left clockwise: Coach Lambert informed someone they had just committed their fourth foul; the 1977 Triton sectional champs, left to right, row 1: H. Smith, Principal, Cheerleaders K. Beezley, A. Griffith, K. Brouwer, R. Byrd, S. Holderread, B. Yoder; row 2: B. Smith, L. Jones, Mgr., R. Steele, Mgr., J. D. Carl; row 3: K. Patton, K. Trobaugh, B. Sylvester, D. Rassi, K. Cripe, Coach Lambert, Coach Mahnensmith; row 4: W. Packer, M. Simpson, N. Vanlaningham, M. Lantz, M. Francis, E. Ummel, Athletic Director, J. Alford, Stats.

Cheerleaders light the fire.

Once again, our cheerleaders braved the arctic cold at the football games and also the desert heat of the gymnasium during basketball season. Throughout the year, wherever they were, players and spectators received the benefit of their good looks and healthy lungs. The girls' sponsor was Pam Juday.

Starting right clockwise: the varsity cheerleaders, clockwise from top: R. Byrd, K. Beezley, B. Yoder, K. Brouwer, A. Griffith; the junior varsity cheerleaders, clockwise from top: N. Amos, S. Silveus, K. Calobrace, J. Boyer, K. Yoder; the freshman cheerleaders, clockwise from top: T. Rinker, R. Easley, B. Brewer, M. White.

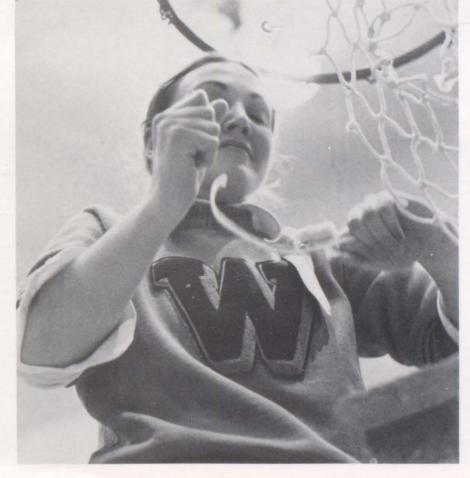

Starting below clockwise: the many moods of sectional competition as shown by: Kim Beezley; Andrea Griffith; Barb Yoder; Rhonda Byrd.

Starting below clockwise: the emotions of the regional also surfaced on the faces of: Kathy Yoder and Kim Calobrace; Andrea Griffith; Tracy Rinker and Rose Easley awaited the start of the game; Jenny Boyer.

Hockey is new at WHS.

In their first actual year of scheduled competition, our Wawasee hockey team proved to be a strong contender on the ice. Skating against a majority of experienced Fort Wayne teams, the guys, coached by Tom Kitch, produced a solid 6-8 record. Although the team was not directly sponsored by the school, the student body gave enthusiastic support to the squad.

Starting below clockwise: junior varsity team members, left to right, row 1: G. Vance, M. Murray, R. Ladner, A. Coy, M. Minnick; row 2: K. Rockenbaugh, K. Schrock, J. Beezley, R. Hawn, D. Tracy; row 3: S. Green, T. Haines, E. Shepherd, G. Snyder, S. Detwiler, Coach Minegar; varsity baseball team members, left to right, row 1: M. Phillabaum, M. Wolfe, J. C. Schrock, S. Bryant, J. Kaiser, C. Bowman; row 2: G. Evans, R. Wuthrich, J. Willits, K. Trobaugh, S. Kroh, B. Smith; row 3: Coach Lambert, J. Smith, W. Packer, T. Haines, J. V. Coach Minegar.

Jerry Lambert's varsity baseball team started the season a bit unevenly but then fought back with wins against Manchester, Fairfield, Columbia City, Goshen, Triton and Northfield. With the varsity squad losing only three seniors and Coach Minegar's J.V. team gaining valuable playing time, the future looked bright for next year's squad.

Starting below clockwise: senior Todd Haines demonstrated superior fielding ability; when Jeff Smith let loose with that arm, it was hard telling where the ball was going to go; Greg Evans showed great form, but the pitcher missed his bat; Chin up, Stan. It wasn't that bad; Coach Minegar offered his opinions on baseball to whomever happened to be listening.

Tennis team can find no faults.

Coached by Jim Webster, a team comprised of a majority of underclassmen earned a respectable 8-9 record. Strong decisive wins were achieved over Whitko, Laville, Howe Military, and conference rivals Goshen and Rochester. The team was narrowly defeated by second ranked conference foe Concord in sectional play. With a record such as this, the future looked smashing for Warrior teams.

Starting right clockwise: when he wasn't playing, Mark Krug took time to "Do the Hustle"; the Warrior tennis team, left to right, row 1: S. Arnold, T. Bartow, M. Strombeck, R. Hamman, J. Iden, G. Carpenter, J. D. Carl, M. Krug; row 2: P. Schrumpf, G. Brown, D. Tucker, T. Hamman, K. Trobaugh, B. Smith, M. Lantz, Coach Webster.

Starting below clockwise: Gary Brown put an extra ''oomph!'' on that shot; Tim Hamman went deep for a back court lob; Poor ol' Coach . . . they never even let him play!; Bryan Smith readied himself against the return.

Girls rebuild.

This season proved to be a time to build after losing several seniors from last year's squad. Coached by Cindy Peterson, the girls did defeat Northwood and Warsaw in key NLC matches to provide bright spots in this season's competition.

Golf team up to par.

Experience proved to be the deciding factor this year as the golf team received only three losses in eleven victories in the hole. The swingers entered sectional competition and placed third with twelve teams competing. The girls were coached by Mavis Vanderveer.

Golfers experience one of the finest seasons ever.

The 1977 golf season was one of the best in Wawasee history with 5 returning lettermen and several experienced J.V. players. These golfers helped to produce a 20 and 2 record in '76. The 1977 schedule was stronger yet. They lost only 4 while winning 14 and were 4 and 3 in the conference. They won the NLC Tournament and had hopes of finishing high in the sectional. The golfers were coached by Rudy Cesco and Tony Clouse.

Starting below clockwise: Gary, we knew you could hold that pose another 15 minutes; Bob Johnson apparently knew which ball he was going to hit; Robbie Smith played ''staredown'' with the ball.

Coached again by George Vitaniemi and Tony Clouse, a large group of eager freshmen completed a fine season. The squad, faced with a tough schedule, grabbed six wins in ten contests and came very close by tying one.

First year Warriors show promise.

Junior Varsity blasts Concord 38-0.

Ted Mahnensmith coached the junior Warriors to a strong season which ended with 7 wins in 9 contests. The squad defeated conference foes Warsaw, Rochester, Northwood and then trounced Concord 38-0.

Starting above clockwise: Keith Cripe struggled to keep his balance; J. Popenfoose took a dive against the Bremen Lions; the varsity football squad, left to right, row 1: C. Luttman, B. Rensberger, D. Andrews, D. Johnson, P. Beer, S. Moore, T. Hepler, G. Shand, K. Butcher, J. Beer; row 2: M. Clark, J. Popenfoose, J. Fall, R. McKibben, S. Kroh, G. Evans, M. Phillabaum, J. Glon, V. Gronendyke, D. Denney; row 3: D. Ruth, K. McMillan, D. Owens, J. Knisley, A. Wollman, A. Brown, T. Kroh, S. Lippman, D. Bohnstedt, R. Bauman; row 4: R. Parker, O. V. Harris, T. Haines, K. Cripe, W. Lambert, M. Ousley, M. Francis, K. Patton, T. Knudsen; row 5: Managers L. Jones, R. Owen, G. Wyant.

Starting left clockwise: a mass of Warrior jerseys converged to stop the play; Rick Bauman demonstrated the running style that brought him much area recognition; although the game looked secure, Coaches Traviola, Matz, and Mahnensmith wanted that first down.

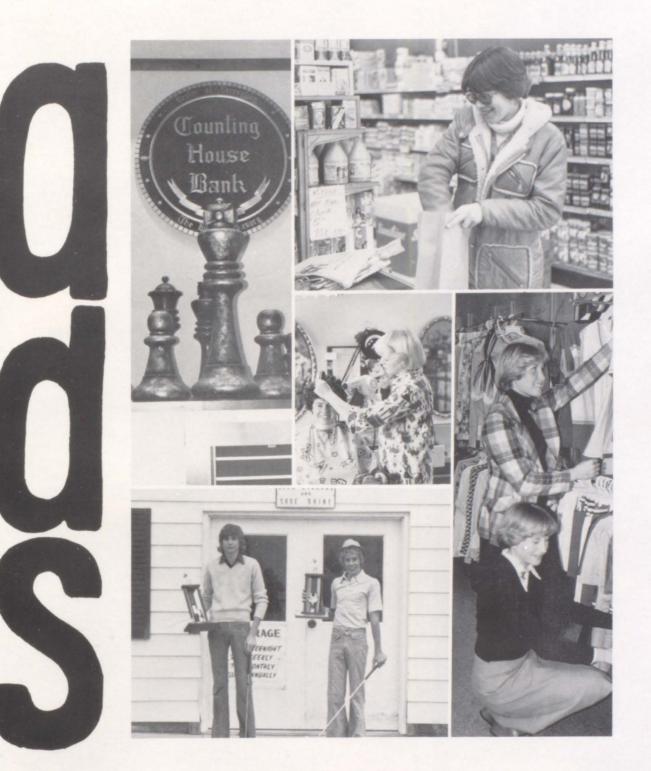

For the 1976 season, the Warrior varsity football team once again had a winning season. Hal Traviola's Green Machine was handed only three defeats in 10 contests while competing in one of the toughest conference lineups in years.

Stellar performances were recognized as the All-Conference balloting placed Rick Bauman and Mitch Ousley on the first team. Keith Cripe earned a berth on the second team while Todd Haines and Joel Popenfoose captured recognition with Honorable Mention awards. Bauman also had an outstanding year as he grabbed enough yardage and touchdowns to place second only to Plymouth's Pete Buchanan.

Founded in 1952 by H. S. Brembeck, Chore-Time Equipment, Inc. will be celebrating its 25th Anniversary during 1977. From its early basement beginning. Chore-Time has grown to its present six plant international level.

The main plant located in Milford, Indiana (pictured) manufactures mechanized feeders, waterers and feed delivery systems for the turkey, broiler, cage layer and swine industries. Across the road is the Air Systems Division which specializes in the manufacture of ventilating systems for these industries. Traveling south to Decatur, Alabama is a plant which manufactures cages for the cage layer industry. Just east at Athens, Georgia is a plant manufacturing cage feeders, trough waterers and egg gathering equipment to complement the Decatur Division product line. Across the sea to Maldegem, Belgium are two more plants built to serve a growing European market.

Chore-Time is proud of its association with the Milford area community and would like to thank the many within the community for having helped make the Chore-Time story a successful one. Thank you, Chore-Time Equipment; St. Rd. 15
