AS I WANDER THROUGH THE WORLD IN WHICH I LIVE I SEARCH EVERYWHERE FOR SOME NEW INSPIRATION BUT IT'S MORE THAN COLD REALITY CAN GIVE. WHEN I NEED A CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION. I RELY ON MY IMAGINATION. I LEARN THAT EVERYBODY HAS A DREAM. AND THAT I AM NOT ALONE. True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends but in their worth and value.

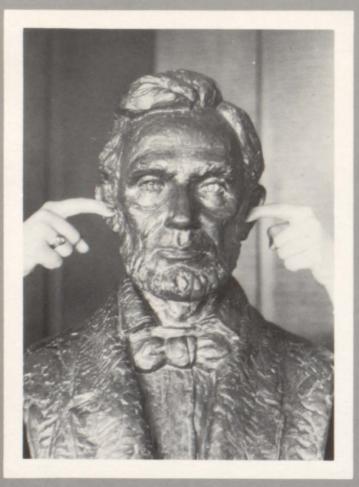

F

EVERY MINUTE SOMEONE'S DREAM COMES TRUE. EVERY DAY BRINGS THOUGHTS OF TOMORROW. EVERY WEEK BRINGS SORROW OR GLADNESS. EVERY YEAR FILLS THE HEART WITH MEMORIES.

Seniors choose 8 Homecoming candidates.

1. Queen hopefuls Mel Zurcher, Amy Speicher, Michele Miller and Michelle White posed for a picture. 2. Mel Zurcher and Bart Bowser seemed thrilled by all the Homecoming festivities. 3. Candidates Amy Speicher and Greg Carpenter flashed a smile.

On the evening of September 28th, eight candidates concluded two hectic weeks of picture taking, parading through homerooms and displaying their best behavior. As each couple crossed the field, the excitement mounted. The winners were finally announced. Bart Bowser and Michele Miller shared runner-up honors. Doug Mock and Michelle White were crowned the 1979 Homecoming King and Queen.

1. The Homecoming Court was Michelle White, Melanie Zurcher, Michele Miller, Amy Speicher, Doug Mock, Bart Bowser, Kelly Marose, and Greg Carpenter. 2. Michele Miller was escorted by Kelly Marose on Homecoming night. 3. Candidates Doug Mock and Michelle White rested for a rustic picture. 4. Doug Mock, Bart Bowser, Greg Carpenter and Kelly Marose leaned into their roles as King candidates.

Homecoming is highlighted by football win.

Homecoming 1979 presented "The Olympics." The classes and clubs worked hard on their individual floats. Under the careful instruction of Mr. Zurcher, the junior class float captured the King and Queen trophy along with best class float. As is tradition, Homecoming was climaxed by a football win over Mississinewa and the coronation of a new King and Queen.

1. 1979 King and Queen, Doug Mock and Michelle White, displayed their winning smiles. 2. Seniors had a victorious win over Juniors in the annual powder puff football game.

1. Freshman float won the Most Original Display award. 2. Deca members won the Best Club Float. 3. The senior float, "The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat," won Most Appropriate to the Theme award. 4. The junior effort won the King and Queen Trophy and Best Class Float award.

I. C. Clevenger as Newton gave his wife Anabelle, A. Steffen, a little kiss. 2. "Close the door Newton, I feel a draft." said Aunt Stanley, Jill Sliger. 3. J. Kampf played Steve, the nerdish boyfriend. 4. S. Deck as Mr. Prescott was a typically "friendly" neighbor. 5. The Douglas sisters, alias D. Bartow and M. Wakeland, were the chairpersons of the County Historical Society.

George Washington Slept Here and The Sound of Music are each a success.

The drama department gave two excellent performances with the help of the music department on the Spring production. The fall play, George Washington Slept Here, starred Andrea Steffen and Curt Clevenger. The Spring production was The Sound of Music with the two leads being Chris Taylor and Chris McFarland.

 Jill Hamell played Mother Abess. 2. The Von Trapp Family Singers performed at the festival. 3. Maria prepared for her wedding.
Don Frew, Julie Bushong, Scott Karbach, and Brenda Iden stood at attention.

Wawasee appreciates convocations.

1. J. Sliger and D. Brown represented seniors in the fall fling, 2. "Allison" Sherman displayed her winter fling outfit for all the good looking guys. 3. We were entertained by a military rock and roll band.

Wawasee had a good variety of convocations this year. We had our fall fling, but a new winter fling was added also. The music department performed during our Christmas convocation. They helped to break the monotony of the year.

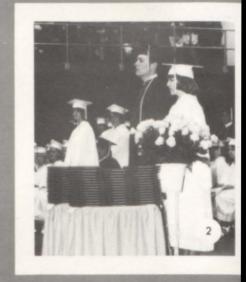

I. Susan Freeman was the narrator for the Christmas concert. 2. The choir performed during the Christmas concert. 3. Mr. Don Wharton, who worked closely with the FCA, gave a solo performance.

We cannot discover new oceans unless we have courage to lose sight of the shore.

1. Seniors awaited the exciting moment. 2. Sharon Meek and Richard Steele were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, 3. Kristi Landon and Lisa Hummel waited to receive their diplomas. 4. Bart Bowser seemed to be caught in deep thought as he awaited presentation of his diploma.

On May 18, 1980, the twelfth class, consisting of 237 seniors, graduated from Wawasee. The class wore two colors of robes, the girls in white and the boys in green. The class flower was the yellow rose. The class chose this motto: "We cannot discover new oceans unless we have courage to lose sight of the shore."

I. Lisa Solina and Brenda Spangle were shown displaying mixed emotions during the processional. 2. Beth Burke. Derria Hill, Lori Wiggs and Arnold Garza waited for the rest of the class to enter. 3. Diane Dieterly and Tim Kroh, junior class officers, were chosen to lead the procession. Mr. Smith, Rev. Steele, Rev. McFarland and Mr. Kesler conducted the ceremony.

Seniors Enjoy Prom '80.

The birdies sang And arrows twanged As cupids fluttered by.

The air perfumed, I would assume, With romance (heavy sigh).

> The sweethearts walked And cupids gawked at The couples (all too few).

> > The band played on So loud and long And everybody flew.

Through disco moves In ones and twos The couples danced around.

> And the once filled hall, With echoing walls And memories profound

Remind us still It always will Of good times had by all.

1. Doug Mock showed his dance moves. 2. Curt Clevenger and Kathy Stewart seemed to be enjoying themselves. 3. Juniors Lisa Fidler, Diane Dieterly, Deb Bartow, Amy Reed, and Angie Augsburger were angels all night while serving refreshments.

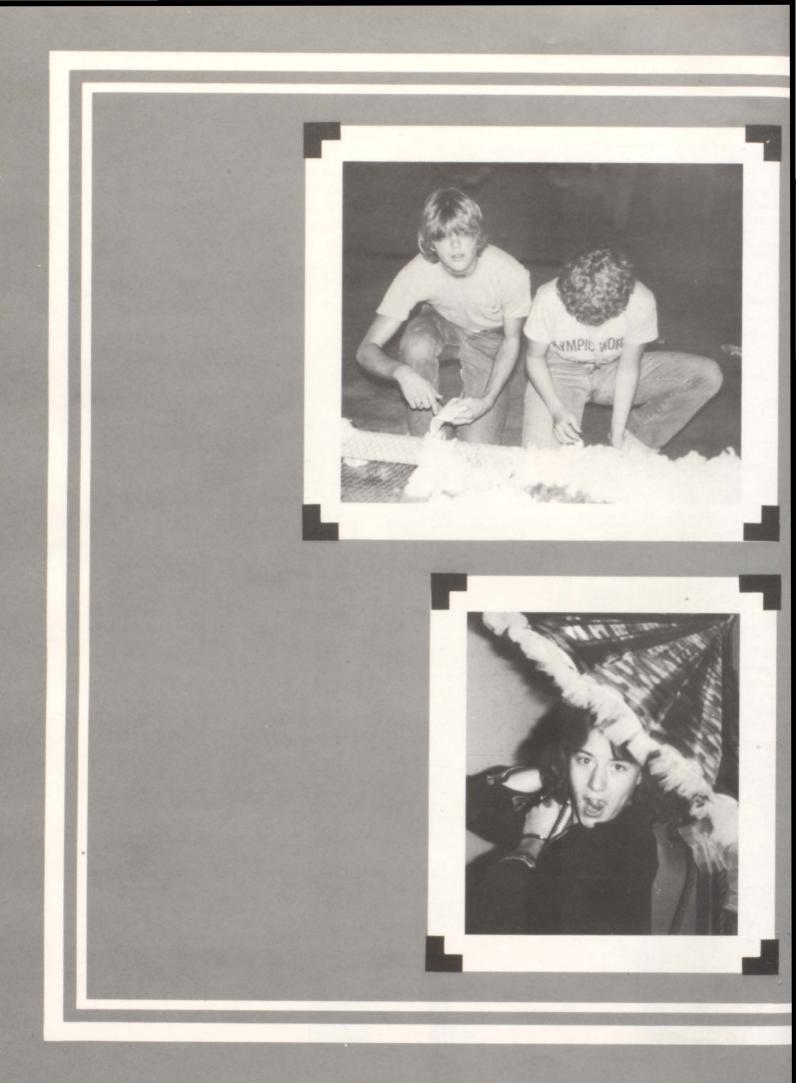

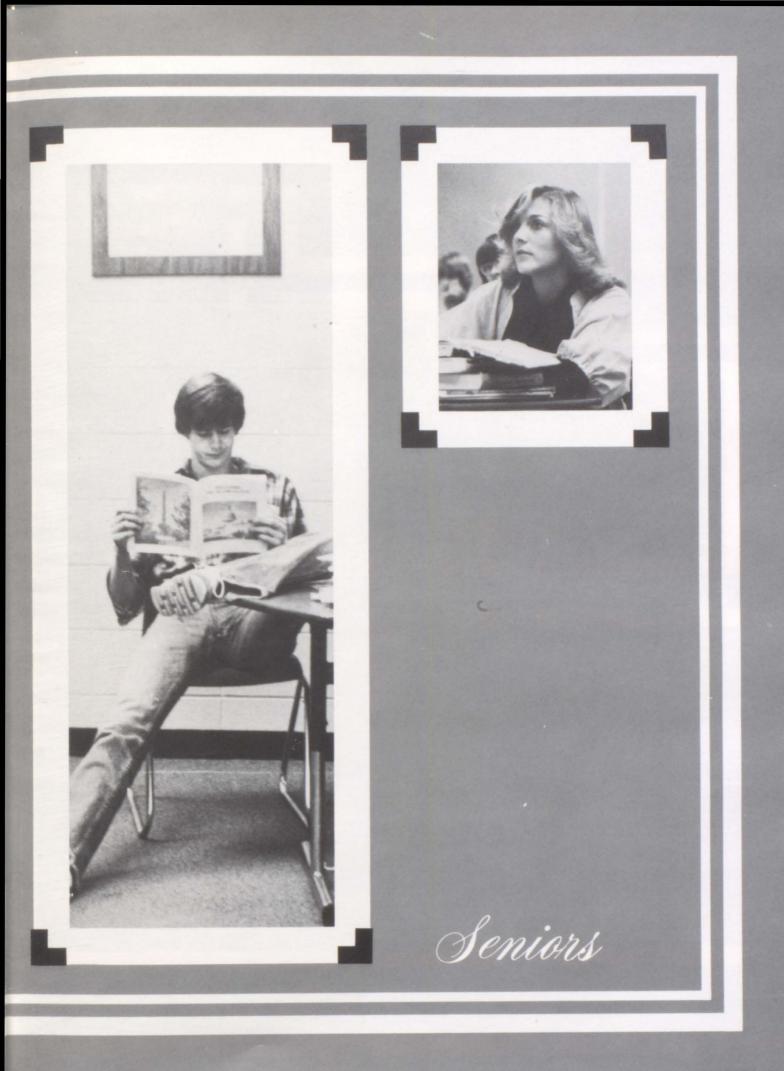

After one week of very hard work, the seniors were able to enjoy the beauty of a "Stairway to Heaven." "The Small Change Band," from Indianapolis, provided the music for Prom 1980. Over 300 people were in attendance and a good time was had by all.

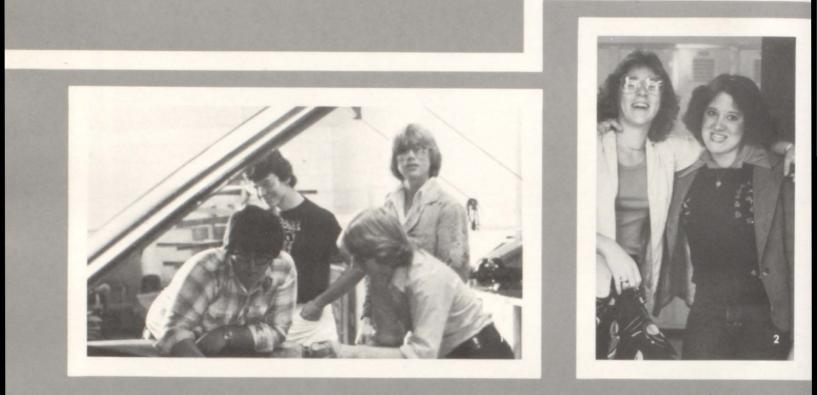

I. Boody Brewer and her date danced until the cows came home. 2. The band, "Small Change", from Indianapolis, provided the music. 3. Roger Shipley, Deb Lechlitner, and Kim Spliter talked about the weather.

Seniors are laughing, joking, and always acting crazy.

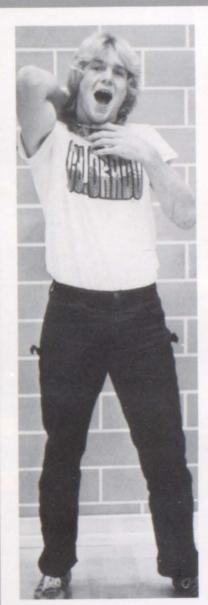

I. J. Beezely, B. Cusick, T. Bowling, and D. Culler pretended to know what they were doing, 2. What were C. Cole and R. Heath so happy about? 3. Senior spirit always prevailed!

1. "He wouldn't eat it; he hated everything!" 2. "Anywhere but on a tricycle!" said D. Bause to D. Hoover. 3. "Heel Clyde!" screamed T. Hardy.

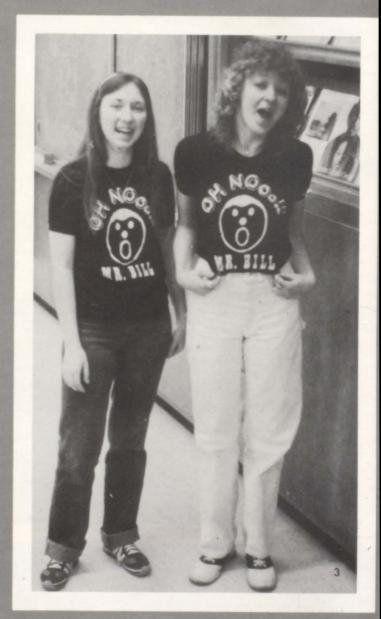

I. K. Schrock enjoyed goofing off. 2. T. Eby looked away in disgust while J. Beezley laughed. 3. C. Method and T. Morehouse showed off their new T-shirts.

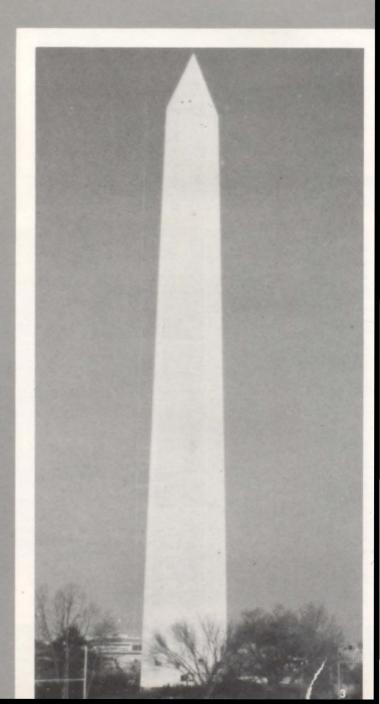

I. This was T. Siri's only silent moment. 2. K. Stewart had something stuck in her teeth. 3. M. Brannock. M. Murray, and R. Heath had their usual play time during HIT. The seniors enjoyed a beautiful day in Washington D.C. this year. The weather was just right for sightseeing. Seniors got to see many new, interesting and exciting things. All in all, the day was a total success.

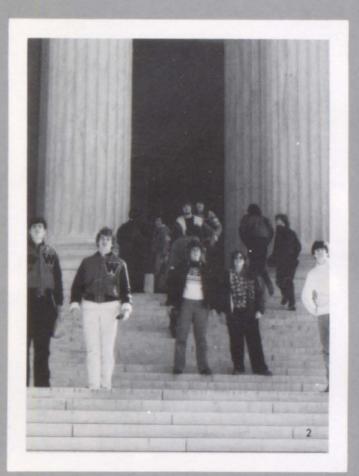

I. L. Grisso, J. Lewis, J. Sliger, C. Taylor, J. Lewis, and S. Koenigshof looked at the Lincoln Memorial. 2. P. Waterson and M. Zurcher continued eating unaware of the roving photographer. 3. The Washington Monument could be seen all over Washington.

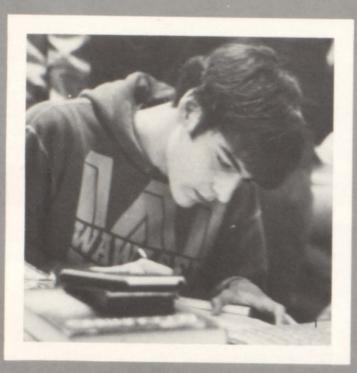

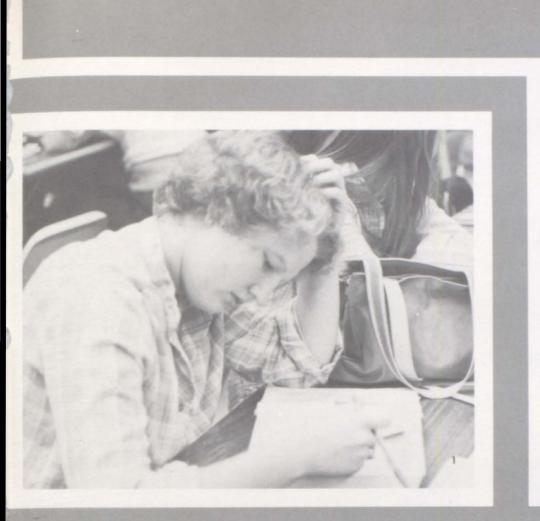

1. Everyway you looked, the rows were always straight. 2. The seniors enjoyed posing for the camera more than looking at the sights. 3. The Marine Memorial of Iwo Jima was quite an impressive monument.

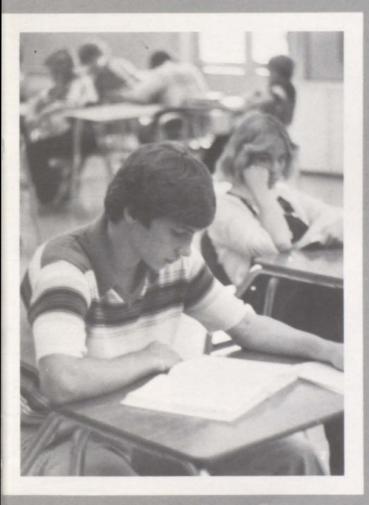

1. What was the book C. Boyer was so engrossed in? 2. M. Sindelar finally broke down and studied. 3. M. Pittman thought she knew what she was doing.

1. J. Sliger really racked her brain for the answer. 2. S. Jones made good use of study hall. 3. A. Speicher shooed a fly off her desk.

IN MEMORY OF TOD PETERSON

It singeth low in every heart, We hear it each and all, — A song of those who answer not, However we may call; They throng the silence of the breast, We see them as of yore, — The kind, the brave, the true, the sweet, Who walk with us no more.

A DMINISTRATION

ONS • PRINCIPAL NNCELLATION REGULATIONS

The administration got through another tough year. They pulled the school together and kept it running. Although they had problems, they managed to make the school year an enjoyable and very memorable one for all.

1. This year's administrators were David Robinson, Psychometrist, A.B., I.U., M.S., I.U.; Stanley Grabowicz, Dean of Students, B.A., St. Francis, M.A., Notre Dame; Henry Smith, Principal, B.S., I.S., M.A., Ball State; Donn Kesler, Vice Principal, B.S., Manchester, M.S., I.U.; Richard Wysong, Vocational Director, B.S., I.S., M.S., I.S. 2. Trisha Martin decided to take over for Mr. Arnold in his absence.

The secretaries added a few new members to their staff this year. The paperwork was greater than ever, but the secretaries managed to stay on top of things. They were the silent partners in the management of the school. Without them, the school would realize all the necessary things that needed to be done to keep a school going.

1. The chorus line of secretaries were Jean Owens, Betty Haines, Jane Gorsuch, Janet Elam, Sally Baker, Deb Harter, Marylee Clingaman, Esther Rider, and Janet Hamman. 2. Kandi Mort helped the secretaries.

GUIDANCE CLASS CHANGES • FORMS • COLLEGE PLANS

1. The "sunshine counselors" were Hal Gunter, B.S., Manchester, M.S., I.S.; Marilynne Curtis, B.S., I.U., M.S., I.U.; Jack Marlette, B.S., Kalamazoo, M.A., Michigan State. Not pictured from the I.S.S. department was Mike Jones, B.S., I.S., M.S., I.S. 2. Kandi Mort checked her typing to see if she had made any scheduling errors.

This year was a big year for the Guidance department as they gained two new replacements. Both of the new people were well qualified and gave valuable information to the students about college, S.A.T. tests, and future planning. The Independent Study System, I.S.S., was in use again this year. More and more students were placed in Mr. Jones' care as administrators felt the need for more control in the school. Mr. Jones became a common sight for many.

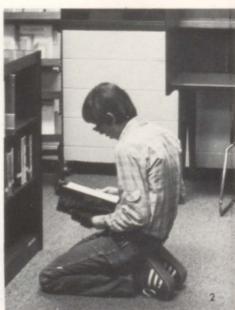

1. Michelle Wakeland and Dawn Kampf checked the schedule of absentees. 2. Mr. Grabowitz checked for missing students. 3. Chris Bornman and Tim Bause checked about their absences. 4. John Grotz helped Ms. Angle with her important jobs.

1. The L.R.C. and Audio-Visual department members were William Guinther, head librarian, B.S., I.U., M.L.S., I.U., Janet Allen, Judy Roose, David Jones, B.A., Franklin, M.S., I.U., Ed. S., I.U. 2. Lyle Haney was absorbed in research.

The Learning Resource Center (L.R.C.) offered a world of information to the student. Information appeared in many forms from microfilm to the ever present book. The library was a haven for the juniors who were busy with research. Freshmen learned the procedures of the L.R.C., and sophomores and seniors used it often for study. The Audio-Visual Department kept the speaker systems going for all events from convocations to basketball games. It also provided films and movies for the classes to aid in learning.

I. Darle Hoover used his skill to repair a machine. 2. Cathy Smith tried to single out a book. 3. Josette Glon and Kristi Johnson pretended to study. 4. Greg Henderson played cameraman.

COOKS

DESSERT MAIN COURSE . APPETIZER .

The cooks outdid themselves again this year. The food in the cafeteria was like none before. More students utilized the snack line during their study hall or H.I.T. period. The cooks worked really hard to improve the taste of the food and their efforts showed.

1. This year's "Country Fresh Cooks" were First row: Lois Murray, Alice Miller, Lois Koher, Jackie Dunithan. The second row was Burtha Rhoads. Diane Schrock, Phyllis Metzger, Pauline Firestone, Millie Coy, Marilyn Grindle. 2. Barbara Carr and Lisa Golden ate another lunch enthusiastically.

The custodians did a good job this year in keeping the high school spotless. They seemed to be behind every corner, sweeping, washing, and emptying trash. Their efforts made Wawasee a nice place to be.

1. The fellows that kept the barn clean were Neil Reid, Phil Rickel, Norm Roby, Orris Flannery, and Roy Stiffler. 2. Vivian Kern was caught emptying the trash.

ENGLISH

COMMUNICATION • GRAMMAR COMPOSITION

I. Language Arts Staff: Joel Robbins, B.A., B.S.U., M.S., Purdue; Max Ellen Medich, B.S., M.A., B.S.U.; Norma Rush, B.A., Manchester; Philip Fawley, B.S., Manchester, B.A., B.S.U.; Terry Iden, B.S., M.A., B.S.U.; Linda Kehoe, B.A., M.A., B.S.U.; Pam Pletcher, B.S., M.S., I.U.; Linda Harkleroad, B.A., Wittenberg, M.A., Notre Dame; Linda Baumgartner; Sue Lehman, B.S., St. Cloud University; Stan Grabowicz, B.A., St. Francis, M.A., Notre Dame; Alan Zerkel, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Purdue, 2. Dawn Baker and Lori Baker were intrigued by freshman English.

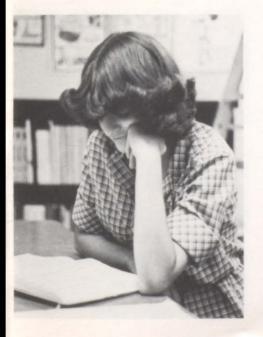

With over eighteen different courses to choose from, the English student had no trouble in finding some type of English to take during this high school year. Courses from basic required English to Newspaper were offered, with the idea of students taking some different types of English courses also with the ones required.

1. Lisa Strombeck was delighted in her book in junior English. 2. John Nulf appeared to be happy about his quiz grade. 3. The freshman English class worked hard during its free time. 4. Sherrill Wise seemed to be enjoying the play, "Beyond the Horizon."

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

ESPAÑOL · LATINA · FRANGIS

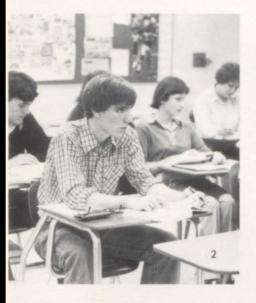

1. Foreign language instructors were Norma Rush, A.B., Manchester; Linda Kehoe, B.A., M.A., B.S.U.; Stan Grabowicz, B.A., St. Francis, M.A., Notre Dame, 2, Steve Alford listened attentively in first year Spanish.

The Foreign Language department had three courses to choose from this year. Spanish, French, and Latin were offered, with sections from first-year basic to fourth-year expert courses. After the basics were learned, students went on to learn the literature, customs, and cultures of other lands.

1. Margi Gans "ils on etudie" in French I and II. 2. Wayne Heffner checked on the correct answers in Latin II. 3. Kristi Landon, Cathleen Cole, and Heather Beer seemed lost in their French world. 4. Michael Vanderveer studied his Latin cautiously.

SCIENCE

CHEMISTRY • EXPERIMENTS PHYSIOLOGY

1. The "mad scientist" teachers were Harold Hall, B.S., Tennessee Polytechnic, M.S., University of Utah; Robert Kitson, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Pamela Schumm, B.S., Michigan State, M.S., St. Francis; Karl Keiper, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Notre Dame; Assistant teacher, Wes Sherman, Grace College; William Kitson, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State, 2. Belinda Burke worked on her science problems.

The science department tried many new concepts this year. Besides the basic discussion and test routine, classes centered around more laboratory work and student participation. Students not only learned to do basic electronic work, but also learned to take blood tests and breed fruit flies.

1. Tammy Bowling and Lori Kammerer prepared blood slides in Biology. 2. Jim Plummer was shocked with the new concepts in Biology I. 3. Sylvia Morris, Lisa Place, and Leanne Mrowcsynski had fun with electronics in Biology. 4. Kristi Johnson and Tammy McCulloch worked busily on their human phys. questions.

ALGEBRAI • BUSINESS MATH MATHEMATICS SHOP MATH

1. This year's mathematical staff were Jim Webster, B.A., Grace College, M.S., Purdue; Terry Frank, B.S., Ball State, M.S., University of New Mexico; Daryl Umbower, B.A., Grace College, M.S., St. Francis; Ted Mahnensmith, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Purdue; Keith Bowman, B.S.F., University of Michigan, M.F., University of Michigan; Michael Neff, B.S., M.S., Purdue, 2, Chris Darr checked his calculations in Algebra II.

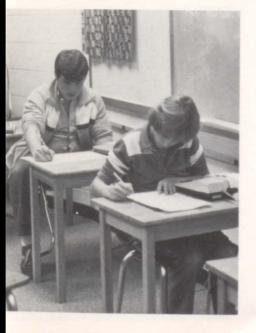

Math offered many solutions to today's problems. The basic courses taught students how to handle every day problems. The advanced courses such as Algebra and Advanced Math prepared the student with knowledge for later needs in college or the business world. Math courses familiarized students with numbers and taught them a whole new language.

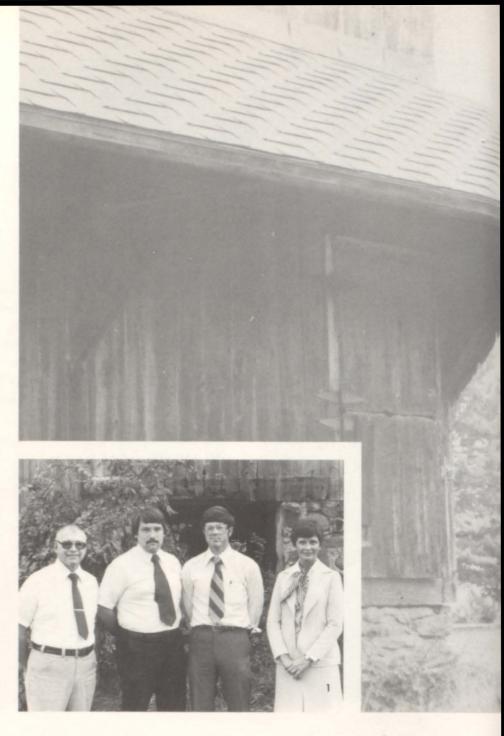

1. Mr. Webster helped his students with their math problems. 2. Kent Stichter looked happy to have finally found the correct answer. 3. Greg Moore and Todd Clouse seemed interested in the new concepts of Algebra II. 4. Henry Avery and Ken Horning checked their problems with the math marvel calculators.

BUSINESS

SALES • GENERAL BUSINESS ACCOUNTING

1. Business instructors were Eldon Ummel, B.S., Manchester College, M.S., B.S.U.; Randal Siemer, B.S., St. Francis; Gary Baker, B.S., B.S.U.; Pat Huber, B.S., M.S., I.U.; not pictured Don Storey, B.S., Manchester; Jerry Minton, B.S., M.A., B.S.U. 2. Carl Zachary typed with amazing speed in College - Prep typing.

Business courses this year provided both helpful and necessary skills. Students could choose courses from General Business to Shorthand to Typing I and II, with every student taking some kind during their high school careers. Most students found that these skills learned earlier helped them with research papers and management of extra summer dollars.

1. Mark Mignery and Steve Koble worked on another tabulating problem. 2. Was Kelly Fifer hard at work? 3. Melodie Tom increased her speed in College Prep Typing. 4. Barb Carr checked on her answers in Accounting I.

SOCIAL SCIENCES GOVERNMENT • TAX FORMS • PSYCHOLOGY

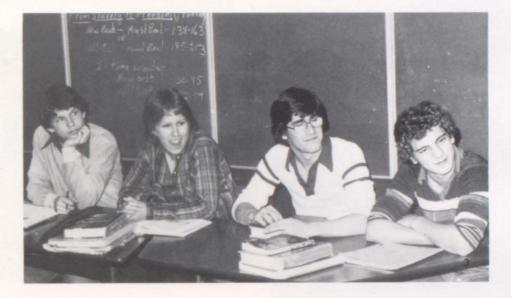

1. The Social Science Department consisted of Vernon Zurcher, B.S., Huntington College, M.A., Ball State; Ronald Corson, B.A., Manchester, M.A., Ball State; Hal Traviolia, B.A., Wabash College, M.A., Ball State; Richard Welborn, B.S., I.U., M.S., I.S. 2. Another Social Science member was Terry Iden, B.S., Ball State, M.A., Ball State.

Social Science taught students the backgrounds and mistakes of past and present civilizations. U.S. History and Government taught the Juniors and Seniors the workings of our government. Psychology and Sociology taught students why people behaved a certain way, alone or in a group situation. Social Sciences showed students the results of actions by other people on our society and world.

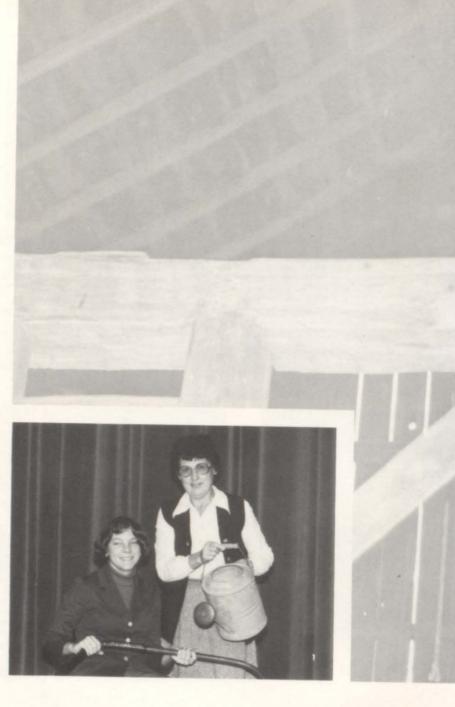

1. Dee Hinesley pouted because Tim Hubartt had the rabbit ears. 2. Dee Rigterink enjoyed the class. 3. Who interested the Juniors? 4. Angie Augsburger dressed up for Halloween.

SEWING • CHILD CARE HOME ECONOMICS SINGLES LIVING

 Janet Bales, B.S., P.U., and Janice Baumgartner, B.S., Ball State, M.S., Ball State were this year's Home Economics teachers.
Brenda Martin must not have liked what she saw, but Tammy Webb seemed to like it.

Home Economics offered many valuable courses in preparing students to survive when they left home. Singles Living taught many guys as well as girls how to cook, live, eat, and feel their best. Sewing helped students learn to work with their hands and enjoy making things to use. Cooking was also taught for the student who was too busy to learn to cook at home. Techniques were stressed in all departments, which helped students learn a sense of efficiency.

I. Tonda Davis smiled at the idea of sewing. 2. Cynthia Peterson got into the art of cooking. 3. The Home Economics students were just one big family. 4. Rose Pamer threaded her machine.

CHOIR

SOPRANO • ALTO • TENOR • BASS

I. The choir director was Steven Bailey, B.S., Ball State, M.S., St. Francis. 2. Sunny Boggs and Curt Clevenger took a break during a Christmas concert rehearsal.

The choirs performed many fine concerts this year. The corporation music festival included W.O.W.O., host Jack Underwood as master of ceremonies. It presented a theme of "Your Hit Parade." The Spring concert was a "Pops Concert" composed of music of the 70's. For the first time at Wawasee, the Concert Choir ventured out into the community to perform a Sacred Concert at a local church.

I. The Treble Choir. 2. Scot Karbach gave a guilty grin during choir practice. 3. The Concert Choir. 4. The Cadet Choir.

STRINGS • NOTES • BOW • STAFF • WAX ORCHESTRA

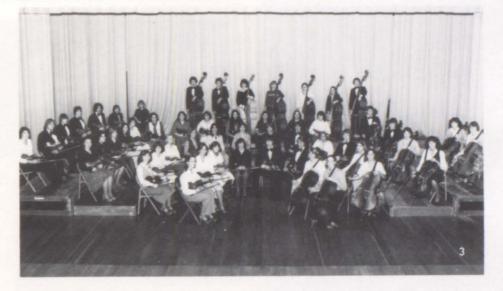

1. Ganette Smith, B.S., I.S., M.A., Ball State, was the orchestra director. 2. The basses played low and wonderful notes.

The orchestra had another fantastic musical season this year. Ms. Ganette Smith directed such songs as "Harbor Lights" "12th Beethoven's Movement", and "Silent Night." The concerts presented acclaimed much applause and praise from both fans and music experts alike. Many terrific seasons were looked forward to by this until now unnoticed group.

BAND

DRUMS • FRENCH HORN • BASSOON FLUTE

I. Band director was David S. Blackwell. B.M.E., M.S., I.U. 2. The drummers "struck up the band."

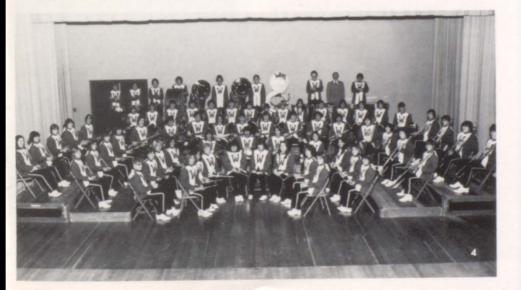

The band worked hard this year to maintain their quality and sound of past years. Many students went to contest and then ventured on to state levels. The band also performed various concerts including the main winter and spring concerts.

I. Drum major Doug Hougey led the band with the help of the rifle girls. 2. Pat Greene was caught blowing her horn again. with Kurt Allen assisting. 3. The Concert Band. 4. The Cadet Band.

ART

COMMERCIALART • BASIC • OIL PAINTING

1. The creative art teachers were Jerry Johnson, B.A.E., I.U., M.A.E., Ball State; Nancy Glon, I.U.; Joy Warner, B.F.A., Syracuse University, M.S., St. Francis. 2. Mary Cox played the artist.

The art classes showed great potential. Each student was encouraged to show his feelings in his art work. This gave students a sense of dignity and made them proud of their work.

I. Cathy Method painted a picture. 2. Janny Doty played with her paint. 3. Shelly Brown and Becky Wuthrich were caught off guard. 4. Jill Gose molded her clay.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

GYMNASTICS • SHUFFLEBOARD WRESTLING

1. This year's teaching staff consisted of: Jerry Lambert, A.B.T., High Point, M.S., I.U.; Marcia Carpenter, M.S., B.S., B.S.U.; Cynthia Peterson, B.S., M.A., B.S.U.; Don Storey, B.S., Manchester, M.A., St. Francis, Not pictured were: Tim Caldwell, B.A., Eureka, M.S., I.S.; and Doug Hutsell, B.S., I.U. 2. Robert Green limbered up for a day of exciting volleyball.

Everyone had fun in Physical Education. With the many varied activities, students learned to release tensions and relax. This year was the first year to have full use of both gyms. The teachers used their facilities to the fullest to help insure physical fitness. Everyone found at least one sport they could identify with.

I. The girls demonstrated their strength. 2. Dallas Gross looked stunned. 3. Robert Green led the group in exercises. 4. Kevin Harney demonstrated how to serve.

NDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

DRAFTING • WOODWORKING MACHINE SHOP

1. Industrial Education Staff was David Matz, B.S., M.S., I.S.U.; Jim Alford, B.S., M.A., B.S.U.; George Vitaniemi, B.S., I.S.U., M.A.E., B.S.U.; Rudy Cesco, B.A., M.A., B.S.U. 2. Mike Cook changed tires.

With the swinging of the hammer and the sound of sawing wood, the Industrial Education department got under way this year. There were over ten classes to choose from, with students interested in this field not having much trouble finding classes to suit their needs. For the beginner, there was basic Industrial Arts. For the future cabinet maker, there was woods, and for the future architect, there was a class in drafting. All ten turned out to be fine courses, with many beautiful projects turned out by all.

1. Todd Moerchen created fantastic new creations in Machine Shop. 2. Robert Wagner tried on his new pair of gloves. 3. Ron Pollock checked his machine for any loose parts. 4. Jim Plummer and Don Curry worked hard in one of their many projects.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION COSMETOLOGY . DRAFTING . OFFICE

1. This year's vocational staff consisted of First row: Lee Troyer, 21 years work experience: Randy Warren, B.S., Purdue, M.S., Purdue: second row: Tom Robinson, 23 years work experience: Janice Baumgartner, B.S., Ball State, M.S. Ball State; Janet Bales, B.S., Purdue: Richard Wysong, B.S., I.S., M.S., I.S.; Gene Duesler; I.E.D. Not pictured were Jerry Minton, B.S., Manchester, M.A., Ball State: Pat Huber, B.S., I.S., M.S., I.U. 2. Mike Richardson painted the easy way.

Vocational Education offered many beneficial courses to students. Upon completing Cosmetology, students could become beauticians after taking their state exam. Auto Mechanics taught students the procedures of maintaining and repairing cars. Building Trades went into the community and built a house. Last year and this year, students worked on the first two-story house to have been built by them. By doing this, students learned through experience.

1. Tina Kauffman listened to music while she typed. 2. Tami Smith and Julie Bushong decorated the sales window. 3. Todd Hardy and Steve Koble mimicked each other. 4. Lisa Hummel was kept busy.

Warriors Present . . . Friday Night Football.

The Warrior varsity football team, coached by Hal Traviolia, finished their season with a record of 1-9. Even though their record showed few wins, it could not begin to show the rugged determination and never ending spirit they displayed throughout the season. Cocaptains of the team were Rusty Morrison and Roger Shipley.

1. Coach Traviolia gave Brian Roberts a pep talk. 2. The team prepared to do battle. 3. The Warriors were always in there fighting.

> Most valuable player .......Tyler Haines Dependability award .....Carl Zachary Most improved award .....Tony Hunziker Mental attitude award .....Brian Roberts

Junior Varsity gains experience.

The junior varsity football team had a very trying schedule. Their complete season had three wins and six losses. Their opponents were tough and the games were exciting. Although the team didn't win many games, they did gain valuable experience. The boys learned many new offensive and defensive plays which proved useful during their season. The junior varsity coaches were Ted Mahnensmith and Dave Matz. Both of the coaches were looking forward to a better season next year.

1. The meek should inherit the earth! 2. Brian Roberts and Mike Brian didn't look too happy about the game. 3. Junior varsity football members were Row I: J. Glon, J. Stuckman, D. Roulo, K. Butcher, M. Dewitt, B. McDonald; row 2: Manager B. Wolfe: M. Greenwood, M. Slabaugh, K. Marks, T. Hunziker, M. Brian, R. Gerber.

Freshmen practice Warrior spirit!

The 1979-80 freshman football team ended their season with a record of two wins, five losses, and one tie. Even though their record showed many losses, the young Warriors could not be outdone in determination. The freshmen worked hard and formed many new friendships during their season. The freshman coaches were George Vitaniemi and Doug Hutsell.

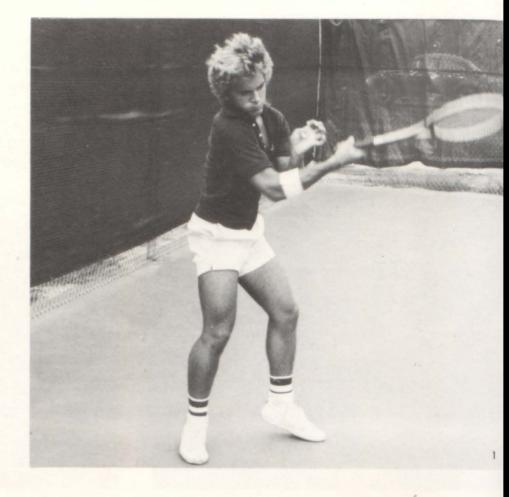

The team didn't look too happy about the game. 2. Freshmen battled for the ball. 3. The freshman football team members were row 1: T. Boyer,

Our guys aren't out for love!

The boy's varsity tennis team finished their season with a 9-11 record. The team had 9 wins, the second highest ever made in Wawasee tennis history. In the conference, Wawasee was 1-6. The Junior varsity team finished with 7 wins, 7 losses and 1 draw.

1. Greg Carpenter gave it his all. 2. Tennis team members were Row 1: Coach G. Baker, R. Wagoner, T. Crum, K. Smith, T. Hubartt, S. Alford, T. Cox; row 2: J. Locke, B. Brannock, G. Carpenter, G. Gant, D. Hoover, D. Coy, M. Brannock, B. Calobrace, R. Hammond, D. Hinesley, R. Cripe.

1. Brad Calobrace was determined to win. 2. Ron Cripe and Kevin Smith must have won their match! 3. Darle Hoover displayed his Bjorn Borg power serve.

> Most valuable player .....Darle Hoover Most improved award .....Tim Hubartt.

Girls' golf is a fairway to start!

The girls' golf team, coached by Carol Sholl, finished their season with a 6-3 record. The team placed second in sectional, then went on to Regional. Throughout the season, the girls competed among themselves for the number one position. All of the girls played their best and were looking forward to an even better season next year with all but three girls returning.

I. Nancy Norman showed her perfect form. 2. Carla Darr bit the dust. 3. Golf members were Row I: A. Reed, C. Darr, A. Bales; row 2: S. Naab, N. Norman, L. Brown, K. Hoover, A. Steffen, Coach C. Sholl.

We do it our way!

The Warrior Cross Country team had an impressive 10-5 season. This was the first year at Wawasee that girls participated on the team. Led by Cam Boyer, they were the N.L.C. meet champions and the runners-up at Sectional. For the first time the cross country team went to Regional and Semi-State. They were runners-up at Regional and placed 10th at Semi-State.

I. Cross Country team members were Row I: L. Chase, B. Rosbrugh, R. Busch, C. Boyer, K. Walker, S. Jones, S. Wall, and T. Yeager, 2. Cam Boyer and Brian Rosbrugh held the lead as usual.

I. Kris Walgamuth and Kina Hamman looked for the ball. 2. Joanna Spearman dinked the ball. 3. Lonnie Black took a dive.

Cheerleaders boost school spirit!

A big increase in Wawasee spirit was the achievement of our 1979-1980 cheerleading squads. The girls were never seen without a smile or a word of encouragement for the teams and fans. The student body was often entertained with the crazy and spirited pep sessions put on by the cheerleaders. The classes competed against each other for the spirit stick, and often groups of people from each class would be called upon to do a skit or to lead a cheer. Always the twenty minutes spent in the gym were filled with screams and laughs which helped fire up our teams and gave all students a break from the routine of classes.

1. Was Heather Beer smiling at someone special? 2. Melanie Zurcher had her eye on a certain football player! 3. The varsity cheerleaders were B. Hunter, D. Carey, H. Beer, K. McDonald, M. Zurcher, S. Kline, 4. Heather and Melanie were having a great time. 5. Kim McDonald had the # 1 spirit!

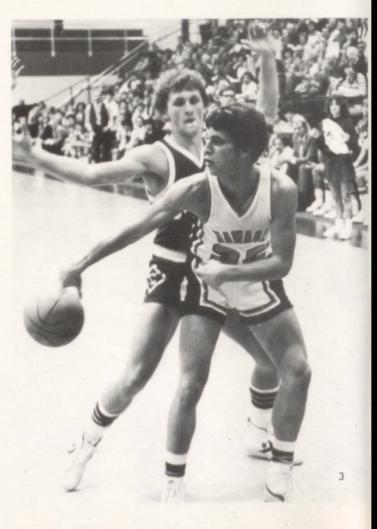

I. Annette Bushong and Krista Everts kept the spirit flowing. 2. The freshman cheerleaders were A. Meek, A. Bushong, K. Everts, A. Gough, D. Charlton; not pictured were T. Granger, and A. Rogers. 3. Kathy Butt, Annette Keim, and Beth Walker made faces at cheerleader Susan Payne. (not shown) 4. Jill Haab acted out one of the many skits. 5. Noe Gonzales was the proverbial "open man."

Gymnasts spring to victory!

Another great season was attained by the Warriorette gymnastics team. Coached for the last time by Marcia Carpenter, the girls captured the sectional title and from there sent Tracy Rinker. Boody Brewer, Heather Beer, Jill Haab, Sandy Kortenber and Carol Meier on to represent Wawasee at the regionals. Senior Tracy Rinker once again displayed her skill by winning the regional. From there she journeyed on to win first in floor, bars, beam, and all around at state. This was Tracy's second state championship in her high school career. The final record for the optional gymnastics team was 9-0. The intermediate ended their season with two wins and seven losses. and the beginner squad posted a 5-4 record.

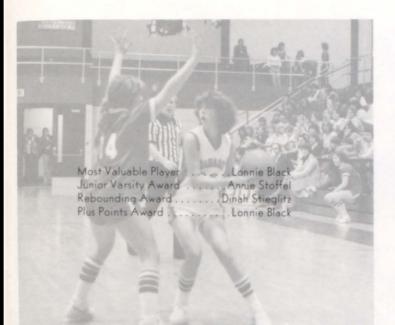

Perfect form was Tracy Rinker's style. 2. Another good routine was performed by Heather Beer. 3. This year's gymnastic's team members were Row
D. Haab, J. Waterson, K. Vance, J. Darr. B. Walker, L. Berger, C. Meier, K. Spitler: row 2: N. Garza, K. Moore, T. McClain, H. Beer, T. Rinker, J. Haab, S. Kortenber, T. Davis; row 3: Assistant Coach K. Conrad, S. Wall, K. Hamman, K. Landon, B. Brewer, C. Underwood, Coach M. Carpenter.

Warriorettes face tough competition

The girls' varsity basketball team, coached by Jim Webster and assistant coach Gail Brown, has a season's record of I-14 and a I and 6 conference record. The junior varsity team completed their season with a 10-6 record and in conference they were 5 and 2. There were twenty-seven team and individual records broken during the season and Coach Webster predicted a brighter outlook for upcoming years.

The students chose a Valentine King and Queen who were then featured at the dance. The money from the dance went to a foster child in Bolivia that the Foreign Language Club sponsored each year. The Advisors' Council was an organization of selected students and faculty. They got together at monthly meetings where they discussed problems and new ideas. The students on the council expressed the feelings and ideas of their classmates for the benefit of the student body.

Intramurals teaches sportsmanship.

Intramurals was an evening activity designed to give boys who were not in sports a chance to work out. This helped the boys to stay in shape and to learn good sportsmanship. The boys who participated were divided into teams to create competition. Roger Shipley's team won the championship at the end of the season.

1. Everyone leaped for the ball. 2. Total concentration was needed to make this shot. 3. B. Rosbrugh performed his famous jump for the photographer.

Lettermen wear it with pride.

To be awarded a letter jacket was the goal of every athlete. To be a letterman, a person must first letter in one sport. After they had received two letters and seven points, the lettermen were awarded their jackets. Each letterman who received a jacket wore it with pride and honor. The lettermen sponsored a disco dance for the students as well as a steak fry for its members.

The club had an annual pumpkin carve that was put on display in the courtyard to create the Halloween spirit in the school. They also showed spirit in their efforts in the art show where many talented students won awards for their work. Art club was truly rewarding.

Health and Student Service help out.

Two groups that were small in number, but large in activity were the Health Club and the Student Service. The Health Club, sponsored by the school nurse. Mrs. Robinson, was one of the smallest clubs. The group met during homeroom and enjoyed learning about basic health needs. The Student Service members were the girls who helped out in the attendance and guidance offices. They ran errands and took care of small problems that popped up.
