A Friend

A friend will always help you out.
And let you know you're cared about.
When there is something really wrong,
A friend is there to keep you strong.
And when you have some doubts or fears,
A friend can help to wipe the tears.

*Laura Meditch

Friendship

In the years before we met
The friends I had were few,
I always wished that I would get
A friend as dear as you.

I remember that stormy argument
And I was on your side,
I understood your problems
And in you I could confide.

I had a beautiful thought
So far up in my mind,
That you were the one to be my friend
Because you were so kind.

I knew I had to find a way
To show you that I cared,
So I thanked you on that special day
For the friendship that we shared.

I was glad that you were here
To help pass the time of day
And I never had a fear
That you would go away.

I remembered that one late last night
When you tried to make me see,
That everything would be all right
Between both you and me.

Then the day was finally here
For you to say good-bye,
And I became so full of fear
But I tried hard not to cry.

The next few days were the worst,
Because all I did was try
To tell myself it would be okay,
But all I did was cry.

Now I look upon the days
Of the friendship that we shared,
And everything you said to me
Showed me that you cared.

Warrior T.V. Guide

Homecoming 1983 saluted television with "Warrior T.V. Guide." The classes and many clubs worked hard to create clever slogans, presented and judged during the game Friday night. The Senior class took top honors in the Powderpuff game, class competition, and they also won the King and Queen's Trophy and Best Class Slogan Trophy. The Best Club Trophy went to the Legend. The Most Appropriate Slogan was won by the Varsity Club. The Sophomores class took home the Most Original. The students enjoyed many activities during the week such as: the bonfire, fall fling, and the spirit days. But as is tradition, the week of Homecoming was climaxed by the game Friday against East Noble. The Warriors came out on top 7-0.

1. Andy Reed was bright-eyed and bushy tailed. 2. Ronda Kinsey, Michele Nemeth, and Gretchen Huffman scoped the guys Homecoming week. 3. At what were Kathie Jones, Jim Evans, Jim Doege, and Mark Kaiser looking? 4. Jerry Auer said "Hi there!" to the camera man.

1. The girls got ready for Powderpuff football. 2. Kathie Jones and Sandy Bowman painted their faces. 3. Some Juniors stopped to smile for the camera during the carnival. 4. Sandy Bowman enjoyed the carnival games. 5. Doug Gerstner played one of the many carnival games. 6. Craig Sierk manned the DECA booth.

Wawasee Kings & Queens

During the week of October 3rd, eight seniors were honored with the title of Homecoming candidates. A hectic week for the candidates included photo sessions for the various local papers and a trip to Oakwood Park for the yearbook photos. The eight candidates were selected by the senior class. The Homecoming King and Queen were selected by the entire student body along with the runners up. On October 7th, during the half-time performance, the crowning of the 1983 Homecoming King and Queen was the highlight of the evening. As the candidates walked onto the football field, the crowd cheered their favorites on. The 1983 Homecoming King and Queen were Dick Doll and Emily Katsanis. The runner up honors went to Kim Zurcher and Jenni Patty.

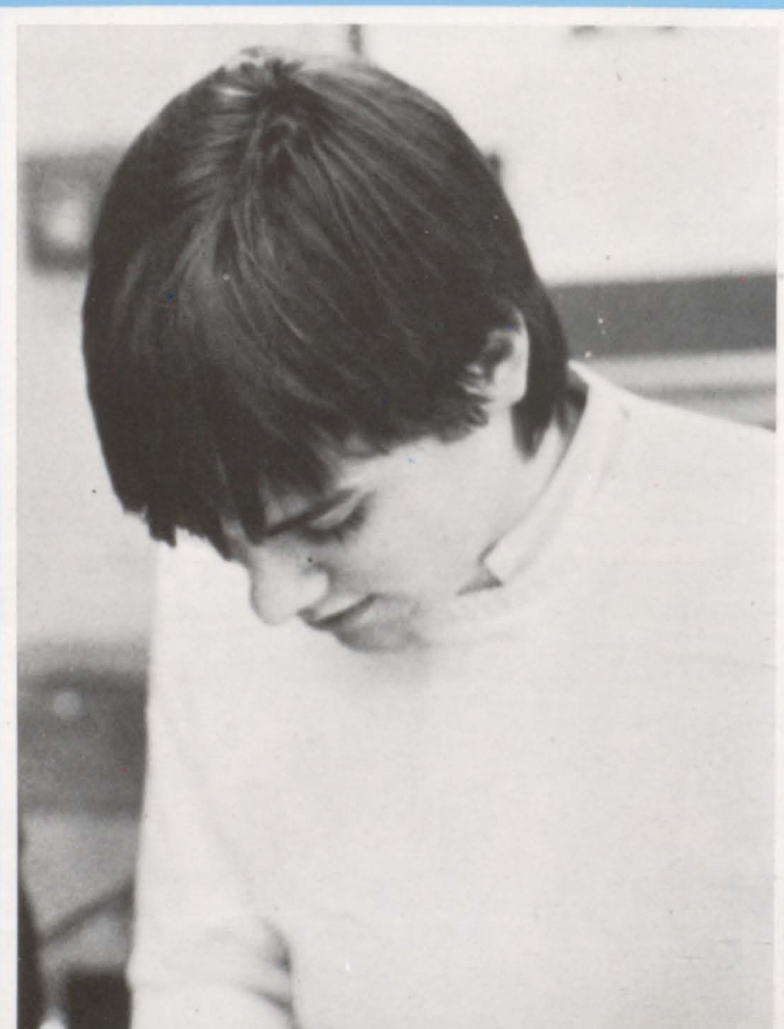

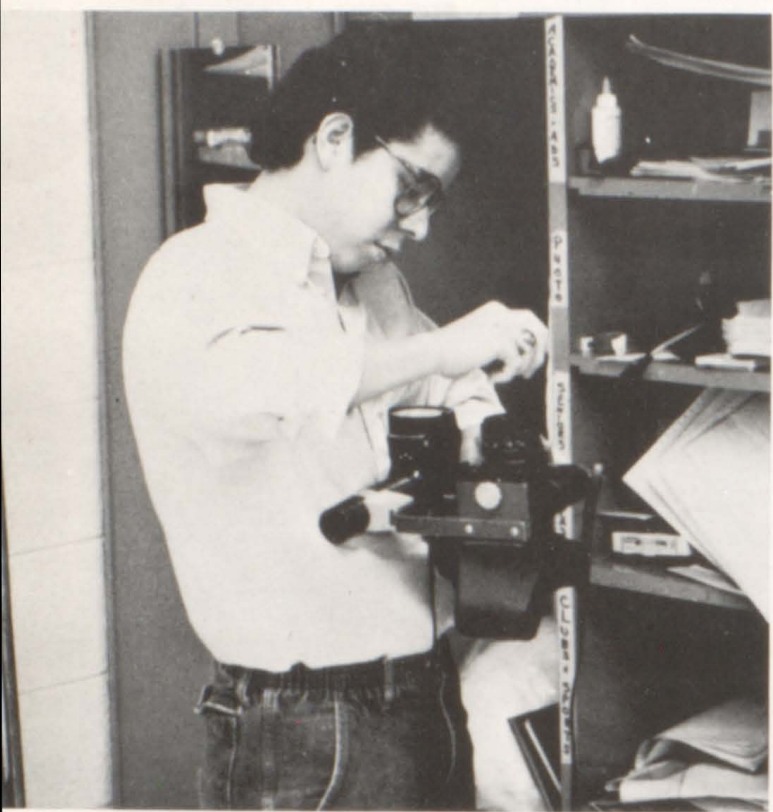

This page: 1. Homecoming candidates Dick Doll and Emily Katsanis. 2. Homecoming King and Queen candidates posed at Oakwood Park. 3. To whom did those legs belong? 4. Kim Zurcher tried to sneak a kiss from Jon Vitaniemi. 5. Jenni Patty and Liz Waltz looked a bit surprised. Opposite page: 1. Homecoming candidates Jill Patty and Kim Zurcher. 2. Homecoming candidates Liz Waltz and Jeff Atwood. 3. Homecoming candidates Jon Vitaniemi and Jenni Patty. 4. All of the King and Queen candidates posed for a group shot: Kim Zurcher and Jill Patty, Jeff Atwood and Liz Waltz, Dick Doll and Emily Katsanis, Jon Vitaniemi and Jenni Patty. 5. The Homecoming King candidates posed on the sea wall at Oakwood Park. 6. The Homecoming Queen candidates sat on the pier at Oakwood Park.

Wawasee Productions

Once again the Drama Department put together two fine performances this year, Broadway Showtime and M*A*S*H. The fall musical Broadway Showtime was a mixture of all the musicals in Wawasee's history. It included scenes from Fiddler on the Roof, Sound of Music, Hello Dolly, Music Man, Oklahoma, and Brigadoon. Broadway Showtime cast about seventy students. The spring play M*A*S*H featured Mark Walker and Ross Elias in vital roles. Both the play and musical were directed by Mr. S. Bailey.

This Page: 1. Did Ross Elias (Hawkeye) really think he would get a good tan? 2. Tamy Noel (Bridget McCarthy) looked on in disbelief as Kim Lundy (Nancy Phillips) looked bored. 3. The entire cast of M*A*S*H took a final bow. Opposite Page: 1. The entire cast of Broadway Showtime was on stage for the final scene. 2. Benji Reed practiced his part as Tevye before the play. 3. Ray Pena and Doug Fiandt flashed the Hang Loose sign. 4. Benji Reed sang a love song to Sharon Bohnstedt. 5. The students had to attend a lengthy make-up session before the musical started.

CONVOS

Many convos took the students away from the daily routine of classes, homework, and tests. Fall Fling and Winter Fling gave the students a chance to compete in crazy games and have a lot of fun. The producers of "Multi Media" entertained with various clips shown on three movie screens. The month of March brought "Free Fare" to the high school along with a jam session. The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company and radio station 97FM sponsored the program "Can We Talk." These were just a few of the convocations which gave students a break during a daily routine.

Prom 1984 ...

"A Touch of Elegance" was the theme chosen for the 1984 Senior Prom. The senior class worked for seven days to turn the gym into a southern mansion. The featured attraction was the entrance which included the announcement of the couple and their descent down the stairs. Sophomore and junior waiters and waitresses served the seniors and their dates. The music was provided by the Carlton-Taylor Band. The Prom of 1984 captured the elegance of an old fashioned Southern Plantation Hall.

1. Jeff Impey, Rob McDowell, Steve Yoder, Jeff Taylor and Brent Atwood stood at attention during the Senior Prom. 2. Jenni Routson enjoyed dancing with her date at the Prom. 3. Jeff Carden seemed to be more interested in the camera man than he was in the conversation. 4. Jill Patty and Lance Lantz only had eyes for each other.

A Touch of Elegance

1. The seniors enjoyed dancing at the Prom. 2. Michele Nemeth and her date were all smiles Prom night. 3. Amy Smith flashed the camera man her serious look.

"Give the World the best you have,

On May 20, Junior Class President Brad Mitchell and Secretary Julie Schwartz led the 1984 Senior Class down the specially constructed staircase for their last gathering at Wawasee. After the invocation by Rev. Frank Barcus, Dr. Howard Hull spoke to those attending on "The Attitude for the Future." Immediately following, 209 diplomas and 3 honorary diplomas for the foreign exchange students were presented by Dr. Hull and Mr. Kesler. Lana Beer, class vice president and valedictorian, challenged the class with "Giving Our Best." The class chose the white rose as its flower and green and white for its colors. The benediction, given by Rev. Roy Mickley, ended the exercises.

1. Heather Jordan and David Dowty marched in to the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance." 2. Brad Mitchell and Julie Schwartz followed by senior Brad Gallier began the procession. 3. Jill Patty was escorted by Jeff Miller.

And the best will come back to you."

1. Mr. Kesler read Sharon Bohnstedt's name as Dr. Hull presented the diploma. 2. Tammy Tranter enjoyed the admiring glances while Kent Elliott looked nervous. 3. Mike Hernandez approached his seat. 4. Dr. Hull addressed the graduates, faculty and guests.

This year's senior class had a busy year. Seventy seniors flew to Washington, D.C., in November. They visited the Lincoln Memorial, the White House, the Washington Monument and various museums.

The senior class won the best slogan contest at homecoming and the girls won powder puff football for the fourth year in a row.

The seniors won both Fall Fling and Winter Fling.

The seniors showed their many talents as they transformed the gym into a elegant plantation for Prom. The seniors were also the first class in 13 years to have an After Prom which had a band, a hypnotist, and a movie. This year's senior class made their last year at Wawasee High School a memorable one.

1. Did the high altitude make Jami Gooding, Liz Waltz, and Emily Katsanis light-headed? 2. Lisa Keener and Joannie Scheiber displayed their friendship. 3. Ron Turner and Doug Fiandt showed their true personalities in this big city atmosphere. 4. Howdy Doody (A.K.A.—Bob Prado) did Washington.

1. Mark Walker and Marcia Sorenson rested after their busy day. 2. Bret Hite enjoyed the bus ride. 3. Helen Pounds, Deana Ryan, Julie Vale, and Margie Fisher made friends quickly with the Warsaw students. 4. Lisa Keener, Ronda Kinsey, Lori Thomas, and Susan Fawley posed in front of the museum. 5. Kris Cox and Liz Waltz looked like they were interested in the sights.

JUNIORS

This year's Junior Class proved to be one with great school spirit. Although their year started off with a loss to the Seniors in the Homecoming Powder Puff football game, they did take in the banner competition with a winning theme: "The Warriors show Knights facts of life and send them to St. Elsewhere." Their year continued with a first place win in the penny pitch, collecting $748.83, which showed their teamwork. They kept their school spirit strong and had a great year.

1. Mike DeWitt took some time out for homework. 2. Greta Hilker, Sandy Payne, Anita Swope, and Sheila Kleinrichert spent free time in the auditorium. 3. Billy Signorelli found a new way of sitting.

SOPHOMORES

This year's Sophomore class tried hard and did their best to come out looking great. They first achieved this with a win over the Freshmen in powder-puff football. They also won a trophy for the Most Original Poster in the poster contest. As the year progressed, the Sophomores hung in there and went into winter fling with good school spirit. But it wasn't until April that the Sophomores really took charge and became a big success with the annual chicken BBQ. The Sophomores had a year filled with fun and a few unexpected surprises too. This was one class who enjoyed themselves as their year continued.

1. Jeff Dunithan and Troy Watson posed for their picture. 2. Steve Galegor finished his lunch and smiled for the camera. 3. Sophomore class council members were Row 1: Christie Carmichael, Stephanie Katsanis, Shaila Fraser, Jeanine Gunn, Heidi Beer; Row 2: Jon Evans, Steve Galegor, Criss Baumgartner, Wendy Hite, and Lance Lantz.

1. Chris Troup took time to glance up while reading Lord of the Flies.
 2. Bill Rhodes really enjoyed his drafting. 3. Why wasn't Phil Charter doing his assignment like the rest of his classmates? 4. Shelley Sanders and Julie McDaniels looked like they were interested in two different things. 5. Scott Anderson, Traci Beaty and Marty Brown looked at all the different pictures together.

FRESHMEN

This year's Freshman class worked very hard. They did, however, lose the annual Homecoming powder puff game to the Sophomores. But they fought back and raised a lot of money in the magazine sales. The money earned was placed into the Freshman account for future use. This class also showed a lot of spirit during sectional week. They were one class that really got involved. The Freshman class had a great year.

ADMINISTRATION

The secretaries and administrators here at WHS were a very important part of our staff. The administration had the large job of making sure that everything ran smoothly. They also helped students make very important decisions concerning the rest of their lives. The secretaries had the tedious, yet very important jobs of typing, writing bulletins and memoranda, teaching the office lab students some tricks of the trade, and just all around keeping the school on its toes.

1. The administrators were Dr. Howard Hull, B.S., M.S., Doctorate, Indiana University; Donn Kesler, B.S., Manchester, M.S., Indiana University; Myron Dickerson, B.S., Ball State, M.A., St. Francis; and Richard Wysong, B.S., M.S., Indiana State University. 2. Mrs. Hamman spent a part of her day answering the phone. 3. Mr. Wysong gave us his puzzled look. 4. Dr. Hull stopped from his busy schedule to pose for the camera. 5. Mrs. Dahlstrom was the Language Arts aide. 6. The secretaries were Row 1: Marylee Clingaman, Janet Elam, Joann Robinson, and Ester Ryder; Row 2: Janet Hamman, Nancy Glon, Susan Kraft, Judy Thomas, and Patty Schwartz. 7. Mrs. Glon was all smiles. 8. Patty Schwartz thought someone was behind her. 9. Was Mrs. Ryder always so enthused with her work?

HEALTH/CAREERS

This year the Health and Careers classes learned about the effects of smoking, alcohol, and drug abuse on a person's body. They learned how to handle their emotions better in tough-to-manage situations. They had a few weeks toward the end of their semester devoted to sex education. This was a very informative course for most students, and it was optional. In the Careers class they learned much about the different opportunities available to them. They explored many different career fields that interested them.

1. Kelly Rensberger, Patty Routson, and Shelly Sanders prepared themselves for a fun-filled health class. 2. Keely Wooster gave a smile. 3. Mr. Lambert went into great detail. 4. Lee Streby filled his fellow classmates in. 5. Were these sophomores actually studying?

Duane Maynard grunted in pain. 6. Mr. Hanson made it back safely from another driving class. 7. This P.E. class didn't look too "physical."

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Our Business Department grew to be very large this year. Students took business courses to prepare them to further a college major in some type of business world. Some of the courses offered to these students were Typing I and II, Accounting I and II, shorthand, and general business. In the typing classes, students took timed writings to see how fast they could type. In the accounting classes, students worked on business simulation packets to prepare them for a career.

1. Mr. Ummel liked teaching his accounting classes. 2. Becky Boyd read out loud as she typed. 3. Typing class always put a smile on Mark Walker's face. 4. Angie Mast typed in her Typing II class. 5. Angie Smith worked hard to get her fingers to hit the keys correctly. 6. Was Mr. Wysong practicing one of his pep talks? 7. What was Lori Hepler hearing through her headset?

MATHEMATICS

Math was also a very important part of our school. It was required for one year. Our Math Department carried a full load this year. A record number of Seniors turned out for the calculus course. Among the courses offered were business math, Algebra I and II, geometry, advanced (senior) math, and calculus. There was also a computer section which included Computer Math I and II and basic computers. Each of these courses was only 18 weeks.

1. Were Miss Brouwer's classes always this attentive? 2. Miss Brouwer was in her usual stance, one hand in her pocket and a piece of chalk in the other. 3. These students tried to figure out the computer program. 4. It was Michelle Turpin's turn to teach the class. 5. Was Brett Hite in favor of peace on earth? 6. # SOCIAL SCIENCES

The Social Studies Department was made up of history, government, psychology and sociology. Students enjoyed many events in these classes throughout the year. The government classes held their annual election in which Ryan Wuthrich and John Milburn were chosen for President and Vice-President. The history classes role played southern plantation owners and slaves. They also did their annual rendition of "Over There".

1. Heather Yoder and Doug Fiandt looked totally thrilled during government. 2. Steve Dunithan was working hard to finish his assignment. 3. Ann Stephan didn't seem to be working too hard. 4. Mr. Zurcher was giving one of his famous lectures. 5. These four seniors looked pretty busy. 6. Mark Walker received some special instructions from Mr. Corson.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

COOKS/CUSTODIANS

The cooks and custodians were a very important asset to our school that was often overlooked. The job of our cooks was to make the daily lunches. They had to try and please most of the student body while still trying to keep the meals well balanced. This was very often a hard task to do. Our very faithful custodians had the job of cleaning up after our often times boisterous students. They were always there after the games and any pep sessions to get the job done.

1. Our cooks were Lois Koher, Lois Murray, Alice Miller, Burtha Rhoads, Vivian Kern, Phyllis Metzger, Sharon Boles, Marilyn Grindle, Diane Schrock, Marlene Leaman, Millie Coy, and Dianne Kennedy, Dietician. 2. Something very unusual must have captured Roy's eye. 3. Sharon Boles took time from her very busy clean up to talk to the camera-man. 4. Did washing tables amuse Marilyn? 5. Our custodians were Roy Stiffler, Don Robinson, Vivian Kern, Norm Roby, Arnold Grindle, and Gil Hamilton. 6. Roy took time out from his busy schedule to pose for a picture. Wasn't he cute?

High Premium Golf

At the end of the regular season, the Girls' Golf Team came up first again. The members of the team combined their talents and brought home an 11-0 record. Many of the girls bettered their personal goals and helped to bring the team together. The team was coached by Rudy Cesco. He was very proud of the team and their accomplishments. Their accomplishments were made possible only by long hours of practice and a lot of patience, exhibited by not only the members of the team, but also by Coach Cesco. Coach Cesco was pleased to present the award winning team members with their awards. The following team members were awarded for their extra efforts: Becki Welty, Most Valuable and Low Medalist; Barb Hostetter, Coach's Award; and Kathie Jones, Low Putts and Most Improved.

Kathie Jones was determined to make her putt.

Warriors Took Charge

The Varsity Football Team at Wawasee finished its 1983 season with a 4-6 record. This record included close losses to Concord and Culver Military Academy. The record could have been reversed if these two games had been won. The Warrior Varsity worked under a tri-captainship this year. These three captains were Dave Melendez, Tony Blackburn and Jeff Morgan. These three provided a stabilizing force for Wawasee, Tony Blackburn being voted Most Valuable Player and Jeff Morgan being given the Pepsi Award. Other senior players also won awards playing for the varsity this year. Ryan Wuthrich won the Most Improved Player Award while Tim Fraser won the Pride, Hustle and Desire Trophy. Kris Cox and Pat Inks also won awards. They won the Outstanding Offensive Player and Outstanding Defensive Player respectively. The Warrior Varsity had fourteen players graduating. In addition to those mentioned above, these included Mark Arnold, Mike Hernandez, Tony Troup, Ron Schwartz, Jeff Carden, Jason Keim and Ross Elias. Various underclassmen on the Varsity must replace them, as well as upcoming Junior Varsity members.

Warriors Don't Give Up

Wawasee Junior Varsity Football finished the 1983 season with a 1-6-1 record. The record was slightly deceiving, however, because of defeats in close ballgames such as Concord, 7-6, and East Noble, 14-8. Consisting nearly entirely of sophomores, the team should contribute many key players who should remain on the Varsity team for two years. Also, Juniors Mike Dewitt and Brian Keim should move up to the Varsity for their final year at Wawasee. With the Varsity Football team losing fourteen seniors through graduation, these players should provide a stable influence over the next two years.

Frosh Give It Their All

The Freshman Football team completed the 1983 season with a 3 and 5 record. Coached for the first time by Tony Vermillion, the team played admirably considering their tough schedule. The Freshman record was deceiving. The team was plagued by injuries to many of its key players. As many as seven players were out at any one time during the year. Had these players been healthy, the Freshman record could have been improved tremendously. The Freshman team consisted of thirty-two players, which was one of the largest numbers for a Freshman team ever at Wawasee. The team lost tough games to Warsaw, 12-6, and Concord, 14-6. If these two games had been won, the three and five record could have been completely reversed. These thirty-two players should make a strong contribution to the Junior Varsity team next year, and to the Varsity team in the near future.

Set To Win

Barb Brouwer, coach to the 1983 Varsity squad, was very pleased with the outstanding performance given by all her members. The girls looked hopefully to a good season which came true when the team won 12 straight matches after losing to Mishawaka in their season opener. At the fall banquet many awards were given to members of the squad and were as follows: Anita Swope, M.V.P.; Dawn Grimm, Desire, Determination, Dedication Award; Sandy Payne, Defensive Award; Tammy Welborn, Serving Award; and Christy Speicher, Statistical Award. This year the squad had 3 captains who did an excellent job of leading the team to new heights. These three members were Tammy Welborn, Anita Swope, Christy Speicher. Members of the Volleyball squad elected to 1st Team All-Conference were Anita Swope and Christy Speicher. On the 2nd All-Conference Team was Sandy Payne. Two girls received Honorable Mention. They were Dawn Young and Penny Hoover.

J.V. Volleyball Has a Winning Season

The 1983-84 J.V. Volleyball Team received a record of thirteen and five. Coached by Terri Stevens, the team played in the shadow of the Varsity for the entire season. This was not a disgrace since the Varsity had a nearly perfect year. The team was loaded with talent. They should provide some good bench support for next year's Varsity. The J.V. Team won all but one of their home meets. This loss was to Warsaw. Warsaw also had a tough Varsity Team. The team lost four away games, and did not seem to play as well on the opposing courts.

1. Traci Ostendorf served the ball. 2. J.V. Volleyball members were Row 1: Sheila Bogart, Darlene Justice, Ann Alford, Belinda Whitridge, Melinda Jordan and Amy Bucher; Row 2: Susan Hoover, Shelly Brumbaugh, Michele Harter, Lori Galloway, Cris Troup, and Coach Terri Stevens. 3. J.V. players waited patiently to get into the match. 4. The teams showed good sportsmanship, shaking hands after the match.

Freshman Spikers Prepared

The Freshman Volleyball Team received a two and six record this year. Wins over West Noble and Bethany Christian were the high points of the year. Coach Marie Kitson said that the purpose of the freshman program was to teach the players the fundamentals and to prepare them to play for the Junior Varsity. She went on to say that, in this way, the season was a success. Team members Traci Ostendorf and Jama Roose had some playing time for the J.V. already this season. They should provide some fresh talent for the more competitive ranks of the J.V. next season.

Love For Tennis

After an extremely promising five and two start, the boy's tennis team finished their season at ten and ten. The team received a sixth place ranking in the NLC out of eight teams and a third place finish at the LaVillie Invitational in which four teams competed. The team had a tremendous amount of close decisions (2-3). Two of these close losses came in matches against West Noble and Manchester. The other three came in important conference matches against Rochester, Concord and Northwood. Two of these teams, Rochester and Concord, finished the season ahead of Wawasee in the final conference standings. Had these matches gone the other way, Wawasee would have had an extremely good record at fifteen and ten. This record would have, in all probability, given Wawasee a finish to their season with a final ranking in the NLC top three. Five seniors were lost through graduation this year, leaving eight returning players for Coach Siler to work with next year.

Girls Take the Splash

After a dismal one and three start, the Girls' Swim Team managed to salvage a respectable seven and nine final record. The girls earned a fifth place ranking in the NLC. They also swam their way to eighth place in the Sectional. The team also had an impressive finish at the La Porte Relays with a fourth place finish out of twelve teams. Loaded with a host of young talent, the team has a promising year approaching. This young talent included diver Jeanine Gunn. Gunn qualified for the state tournament in the 1983-84 season. She finished in the middle of the field, while picking up valuable experience for her upcoming Junior year. Other fine swimmers this year included Michele Berkey, Brenda Messenger and Pam Foyle.

Warriors Run 'Em Down

The boys' and girls' Cross Country teams both completed 1983-84 with winning records. The girls had a four and two record, while the boys finished with second place in the NLC behind Goshen. They received third in the Sectional and ninth in the Regional. They also finished a strong third place in the Goshen Invitational. The boys' eleven and three record was extremely outstanding. Along with this they earned a championship at the Culver Military Invitational. The season ended with a fifth place Sectional finish and a ninth place in the Regional. A third place in the NLC was very respectable. Wawasee finished behind good teams such as Goshen and Warsaw.

The 1983-84 Boy's Swimming Team finished their season at eight and eight. They swam their way to a fourth place standing in the NLC. They received a first place finish in the Lewis Cass Invitational, and a second in the Goshen Relays. Fifth place finishes in the LaPorte Relays, Sectional, and the Culver Relays also served notice. The team was loaded with young talent. Brent Atwood, Jon Shoemaker and Gary Miller did well this year, and should help strengthen the team next year. Seniors that were lost through graduation included Bret Hite, Benj Reed, Todd Smith and Phil Zachary. A victory in the close loss to Huntington North would have given Wawasee a winning season. The team also received a third place in the NLC meet to round off their season.

1. Brooks Koble drove through a crowd of defenders to lay the ball in for the Wawasee Varsity. 2. Joel Rhoades showed good form as spectators looked on. 3. Jeff Atwood looked for the rebound in front of a large Wawasee crowd.

The boys completed their 1983-84 basketball season with a record of fifteen and six. They received a fourth place finish in the NLC behind Warsaw, Plymouth and Bremen. This record was slightly disappointing due to the season-ending overtime loss to Bremen (59-61). The team also lost close games to non-conference teams. These included West Noble (61-62) and Whitko (52-56). There were six seniors on the Varsity team this year. These were Jeff Atwood, Joel Rhoades, Jim Evans, Jon Vitaniemi, Kyle Swartz and Kim Zurcher. Atwood, Rhoades, Vitaniemi and Zurcher were all starters. Jon Vitaniemi was nominated to the Academic All-State Team while Kim Zurcher made Honorable Mention. The other three Varsity team members were juniors Seth Swihart, Brooks Koble and John Hapner. Koble was a starter for the entire season, while Swihart also received considerable playing time. Both should provide some stability for next year's team. High points of the season were victories over Elkhart Memorial and Elkhart Central. A home win against Goshen was also a season "high". The season-ending, sectional loss to Warsaw was a disappointing end to a very fine season.

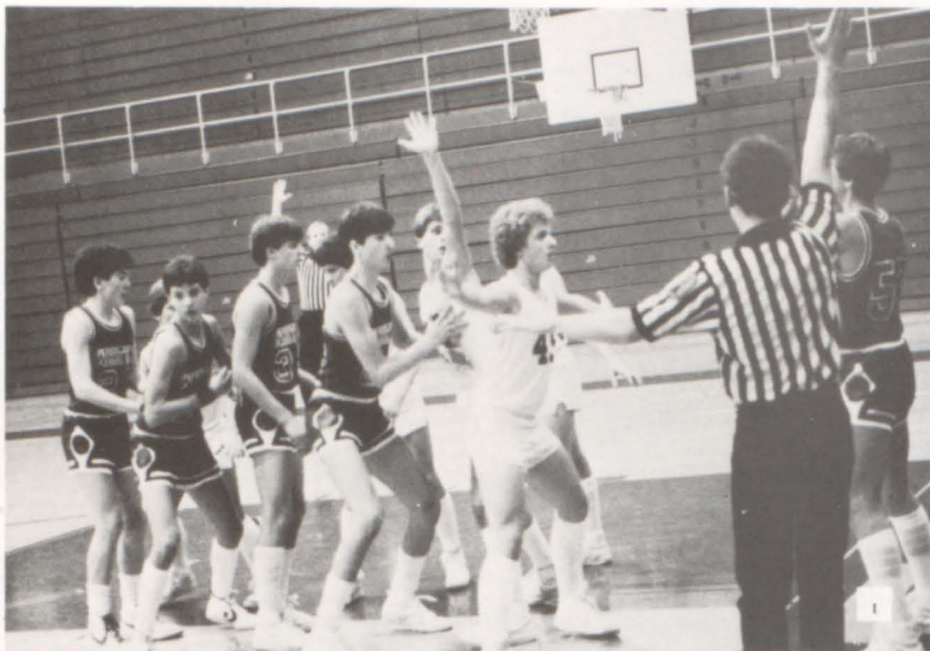

1. An excited Wawasee bench showed their enthusiasm in the final seconds. 2. Jon Vitaniemi released the ball just over the defender's outstretched fingers. 3. # Freshman Basketball Players Prepared

The Freshman Basketball Team received a seven and twelve record in the 1983-84 season. This record was extremely deceiving, however. The team lost a variety of close games including three, one point losses to Manchester (50-51), Homestead (30-31), and Fairfield (42-43). The team also had five other losses with a seven point or less margin. Starters for the team were Rob McKibben, Brett Traviolia, Ben Beer, Nathan Rhoades, and Todd Roberts. These players should all be moving up to the Jr. Varsity next year.

J.V. Strive For Perfection

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team was a strong one in 1983-84. A surprising member of the team was Tim Mangas who was only a freshman, the team usually reserved for sophomores and juniors. He started nearly every game and received a lot of playing time throughout the year. He also played on the Varsity team a little. Mangas had a lot of talent and confidence, and looked to be straight out of the mold of Jeff Long. Three sophomores on the team were Rodney Aaron, David Kistler, and Jon Evans. They provided the inside strength for Wawasee. Since four senior starters were lost through graduation, these four gained experience to replace them next year.

Varsity to Semi-State

The 1983-84 Girls' Basketball Team went to the Fort Wayne Semi-State for the first time in Wawasee history. A disappointing loss in the first round put an end to their season. Starters for the Varsity were Sandy Payne, Anita Swope, Marcia Sorenson, Christy Speicher, and Dee Stump. Marcia Sorenson and Dee Stump were the seniors on the team this year. Sorenson was the strength inside at center, while Stump's ball handling often riddled opponents. Juniors Sandy Payne and Anita Swope battled for scoring honors throughout the year, while Christy Speicher pulled down rebounds to help Sorenson inside. The team was expected to do well next year, with three returning starters on the roster.

1. The Varsity members applauded at the call during the Fort Wayne Semi-State. 2. Wawasee offense was on their toes. 3. The team was congratulated by Coach Brouwer. 4. Members of the Varsity Basketball Team were Row 1: Manager Kelly Green, Corkey Farmer, Anita Swope, Sandy Payne, Dee Stump, Becca Stiver, Manager Darlene Justice; Row 2: Cris Troup, Lori Galloway, Marcia Sorenson, Assistant Coach Barb Brouwer, Coach Dale Brannock, Assistant Coach Jim Hite, Christy Speicher, Michelle Harter, Karla Stichter.

1. Anita Swope was caught in mid-air. 2. Amy Bucher was blocked by the Lion defense. 3. Lori Galloway was at the line. 4. The Warriors were on the ball, but it was stolen by the opposing team. 5. The Warriors took a break from action.

Gymnasts to Regional

The Wawasee Optional Gymnastics Team was comprised entirely of underclassmen this year. They were a young and quickly improving squad that looked forward to many fine seasons ahead. Kathy Campbell was a freshman who competed in all four events. She helped lead the team through the season and was the only Wawasee gymnast that made it to the Regionals. Four sophomores on the team were Angie Graff, Raeni Rinker, Gretchen Huffman, and Jeanine Gunn. The team placed second in the Sectional tournament. Huffman competed on the beam and the floor, while Gunn performed on the vault and the floor. Rinker competed in the uneven bars throughout the season, and Graff did the all-around. All gymnasts will be returning next year, so Wawasee was looking forward to another good season in gymnastics.

1. Members of the 1983-84 Gymnastics Team were Row 1: Shelly Daniels, Sherry Daniels, Steph Crow, Gretchen Huffman; Row 2: Dawn Cavender, Jacqui Schultz, Kathy Campbell, Paula Smith, Irma Cruz; Row 3: Michele Leffler, Jeanine Gunn, Tressa Littleton, Raeni Rinker, Julie Schmahl, Angie Graff, Coach Kim Conrad. 2. Jacqui Schultz was head over heels about gymnastics. 3. Marcia Taylor was being her usual self.

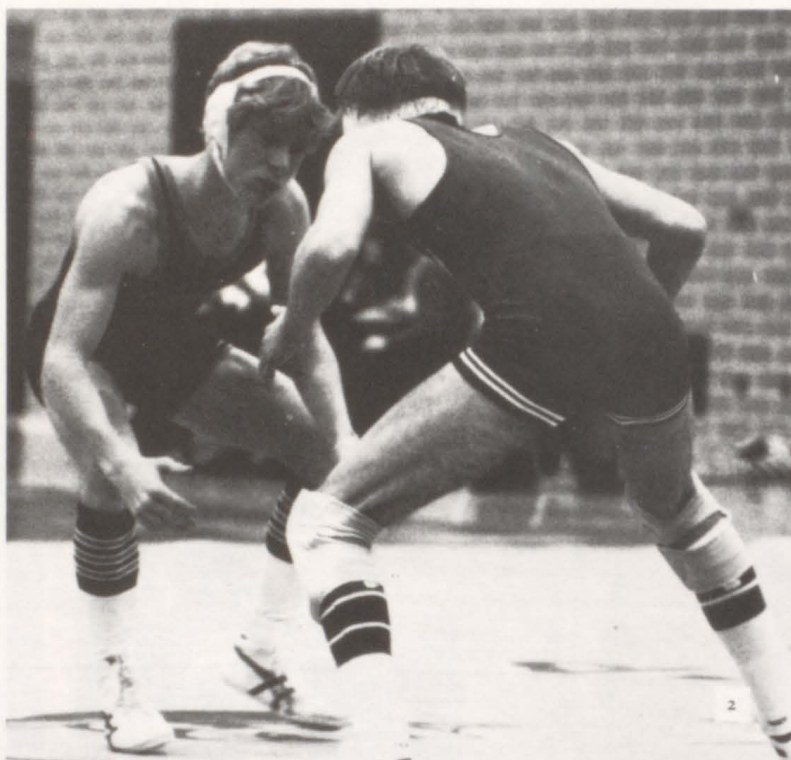

1. Tressa Littleton and Coach Kim Conrad took time out for a quick shot. 2. Members of the team practiced their routines. 3. Gretchen Huffman was concentrating very hard to make her routine perfect. 4. Irma Cruz and Staci Ostendorf were caught in the act.

Wrestlers Pin 'Em Down

The Wawasee Wrestling Team of 1983-84 completed a very good season in fine style. The team finished their year when they won Sectional and Regional titles. They also placed in various invitational throughout the year. The team included J.R. Noel, Duane Turner, Jeff Dunithan, Rob DeSomer, Dave Melendez, Brad Traviolia, Mike Hernandez, Steve Yoder, Jason Keim, Lance Lantz, Tim Fraser, Steve Sturgill, and Pat Inks in order of increasing weight classes. Coach Richard Welborn's team was well balanced with old and new talent. Half of the team was lost through graduation, yet a host of promising young talent remained. Sophomore Brad Traviolia qualified for the state tournament, while another sophomore, Lance Lantz, also turned in a very good season record. With a score of freshmen wrestlers waiting in the wings, the Wawasee team may prove even better next year.

Boys Run for Victory

The 1983-84 Boys' Track Team had many fine individual athletes. Jerry Auer was an outstanding runner. He ran the 400, 800, and 1600 meter races. He was also a member of the 1600 meter relay team. Auer strove for the school record in the 400 throughout the year. He was a team leader who led through example. Dick Doll and Scott Johnson were also seniors on the team. Both competed in various events throughout the year. They did a fine job and were a credit to the team. A young, upcoming athlete was Steve Sturgill. Sturgill, a sophomore, competed in the shot and discus. He completed a fine year in which he gained valuable experience for next year.

Girls' Track Places Second in NLC

The Girls' Track Team was loaded with a lot of good talent this year. Senior Jill Patty led the team along with another senior, Carla Clouse. Patty competed in the long jump, 100 meter dash, and the 400 relay. Clouse ran the mile and the mile relay. Sandy Payne and Amy Clouse were junior runners for Wawasee this year. Payne ran the 100 and the 300 meter hurdles, as well as competing in the 400 meter relay. Clouse, on the other hand, ran the 400 meter dash and the mile relay. Jeanine Gunn was a sophomore sensation on the team. She competed in the high jump, long jump, and the 400 meter relay. Greta Hilker, Marcia Sorenson, and Christy Speicher took care of the field events. All three competed in both the discus and the shot. Only three seniors were lost through graduation, so Wawasee looked forward to a very good season next year.

1. Jill Patty sprinted the final leg of the relay. 2. Jeanine Gunn showed the strain as she completed the mile relay. 3. Kelly Mitchell sprinted into the lead. 4. Steff Swihart had the lead as she approached the final hurdle.

Girls' Tennis Play Outstandingly

The 1983-84 Girls' Tennis Team was well-balanced with old and new talent. Seniors Sharon Bohnstedt and Lisa Keener battled it out for the number one single's spot for most of the season. Two members on the team directly behind them were Lisa Hunter and Jennifer Tuttle. They owned the number three and number four spots respectively. Other varsity team members were Michele Courtney, Therrian Hinesley, Candy Clevenger, Mindy Walkeland, Beth Carey, and Melissa Courtney. The team started their season slowly. They lost to some very good talent in the likes of Plymouth and Goshen, however.

1. Girls' Tennis Team members were Row 1: Mgr. Chris Baumgartner, Christy Carmichael, Sharon Bohnstedt, Lisa Hunter, Jennifer Tuttle, Michele Courtney, Melissa Courtney, Lisa Noble, Jennifer Stetler, Christy Weaver; Row 2: Mgr. Chris Richards, Ann Steffen, Therrian Hinesley, Lisa Keener, Candy Clevenger, Mindy Wakeland, Beth Carey, Kelly Rensberger, Kay Stackhouse, Wendy Hite, Shawn Anderson, and Mgr. John Brito. 2. Kay Stackhouse seemed to have lost sight of the ball. 3. Mindy Wakeland really reached to return the ball.

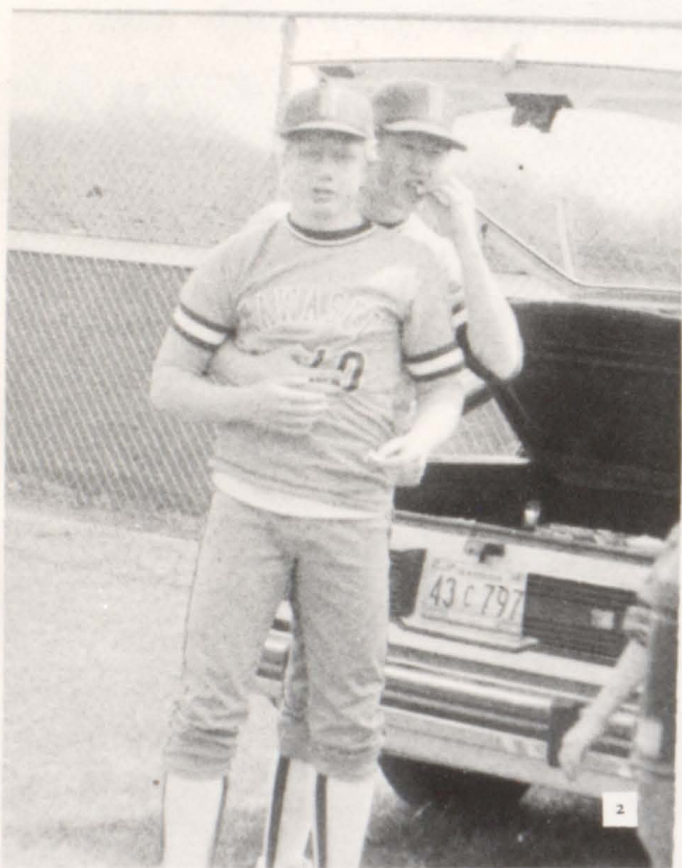

1. Lisa Hunter found her match slightly amusing. 2. Lisa Keener waited patiently for the serve. 3. Sharon Bohnstedt went way back to return a volley. 4. Wendy Hite grinned as she anxiously waited for the return of the ball.

Baseball Team Hits & Runs

The 1983-84 Boys' Baseball Team was led by a group of outstanding seniors. The first of these players was Brian Henson. Henson was the starting pitcher in a number of games and also played a little first base. He was also good offensively, always a threat to hit one out. Next was Tim Fraser. Fraser played catcher for the entire season. Many runners were gunned down stealing as they sped for second base. Tony Blackburn was the third senior of the group. Blackburn played many different positions this season. He was very dangerous at the plate and was one of the most consistent hitters on the team. The final senior was Jeff Carden. Carden was the center fielder. He did an outstanding job defensively and was also a good batter. Kevin Tracey and Steve Yoder were underclassmen that were gaining experience to be leaders on next year's team.

1. The Yoder family enjoyed a family outing between games. 2. Jeff Carden and Steve Yoder snacked as the game approached. 3. The Boys' Junior Varsity Team members were Row 1: Jamie Prescott, Chris Yoder, Erik Sharp, Chris Cotton, Mark McLean, Scott Baker, Kevin Parker; Row 2: Coach Scott Siler, Scott Robinson, Ray Skelton, Travis Reiff, Kent Enyeart, Nathan Rhoades, Eric Metcalf, Terry Ryman. 4. Coach Dickerson thought intently about the game.

Boys' Golf Drives Onto Victory

The 1984 Boys' Golf Team began their season with a sixth place ranking in the state. They were without the services of Jeff Atwood until May. Atwood was the number one man on the team the previous year. Other returning team members were Steve Dunithan, Keith Burbank, Brian Keim, Kim Zurcher, Brian Beaty, and Jay Baumgartner. Dunithan, Zurcher, and Beaty were all returning varsity members. Coach Rudy Cesco planned on keeping fifteen team members. Six of these were to be varsity members, six as jr. varsity members, and three as alternates. The varsity team went to the state tournament in 1983. With four returning varsity members, the team was expected to do just as well, or better, in 1984.

1. Brian Beaty seemed to have missed the ball. 2. A freshman golfer, Kevin Gregory, held the flag for teammate. 3. Keith Burbank really wanted to sink that putt.

1. Keith Burbank looked pigeon-toed as he proceeded to sink his putt. 2. Brian Beaty spent a long moment lining up his putt. 3. Brian Beaty hit a towering drive down the middle of the fairway. 4. Returning lettermen for the golf team were Row 1: Steve Dunithan, Keith Burbank, and Jay Baumgartner; Row 2: Brian Beaty, Kim Zurcher, Brian Keim, and Dave Schacht (not pictured, Jeff Atwood).

Spirit Leads The Way

They fired up the crowds; they led the way towards enthusiasm. Who were these people? The cheerleaders, of course. The Varsity Cheerleaders were joined by seven excellent male cheerleaders. The Cheerleaders supported the Football and Basketball Teams throughout the year. The Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders traveled to the Elkhart County Fair for competition again this year. Both squads placed well against some stiff competitors. The squads also put on pep sessions throughout the year with the help of Nancy Glon. The cheerleaders were very proud to represent Wawasee High School in all activities.

1. Members of the 1983-84 Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad were Row 1: Kay Stackhouse, Steph Katsanis, Shaila Fraser; Row 2: Shelley Sanders, Kim Lundy, alternate, Tammy Taylor, alternate. 2. Liz Waltz was caught in the act of doing the school song. 3. Tammy Taylor was scared of being dropped. 4. Freshmen Cheerleaders were Row 1: Shelly Rogers, Angie McClure, Jodi Lawson; Row 2: Jennifer Tuttle, Kelly Lundy, Denise Berkeypile.

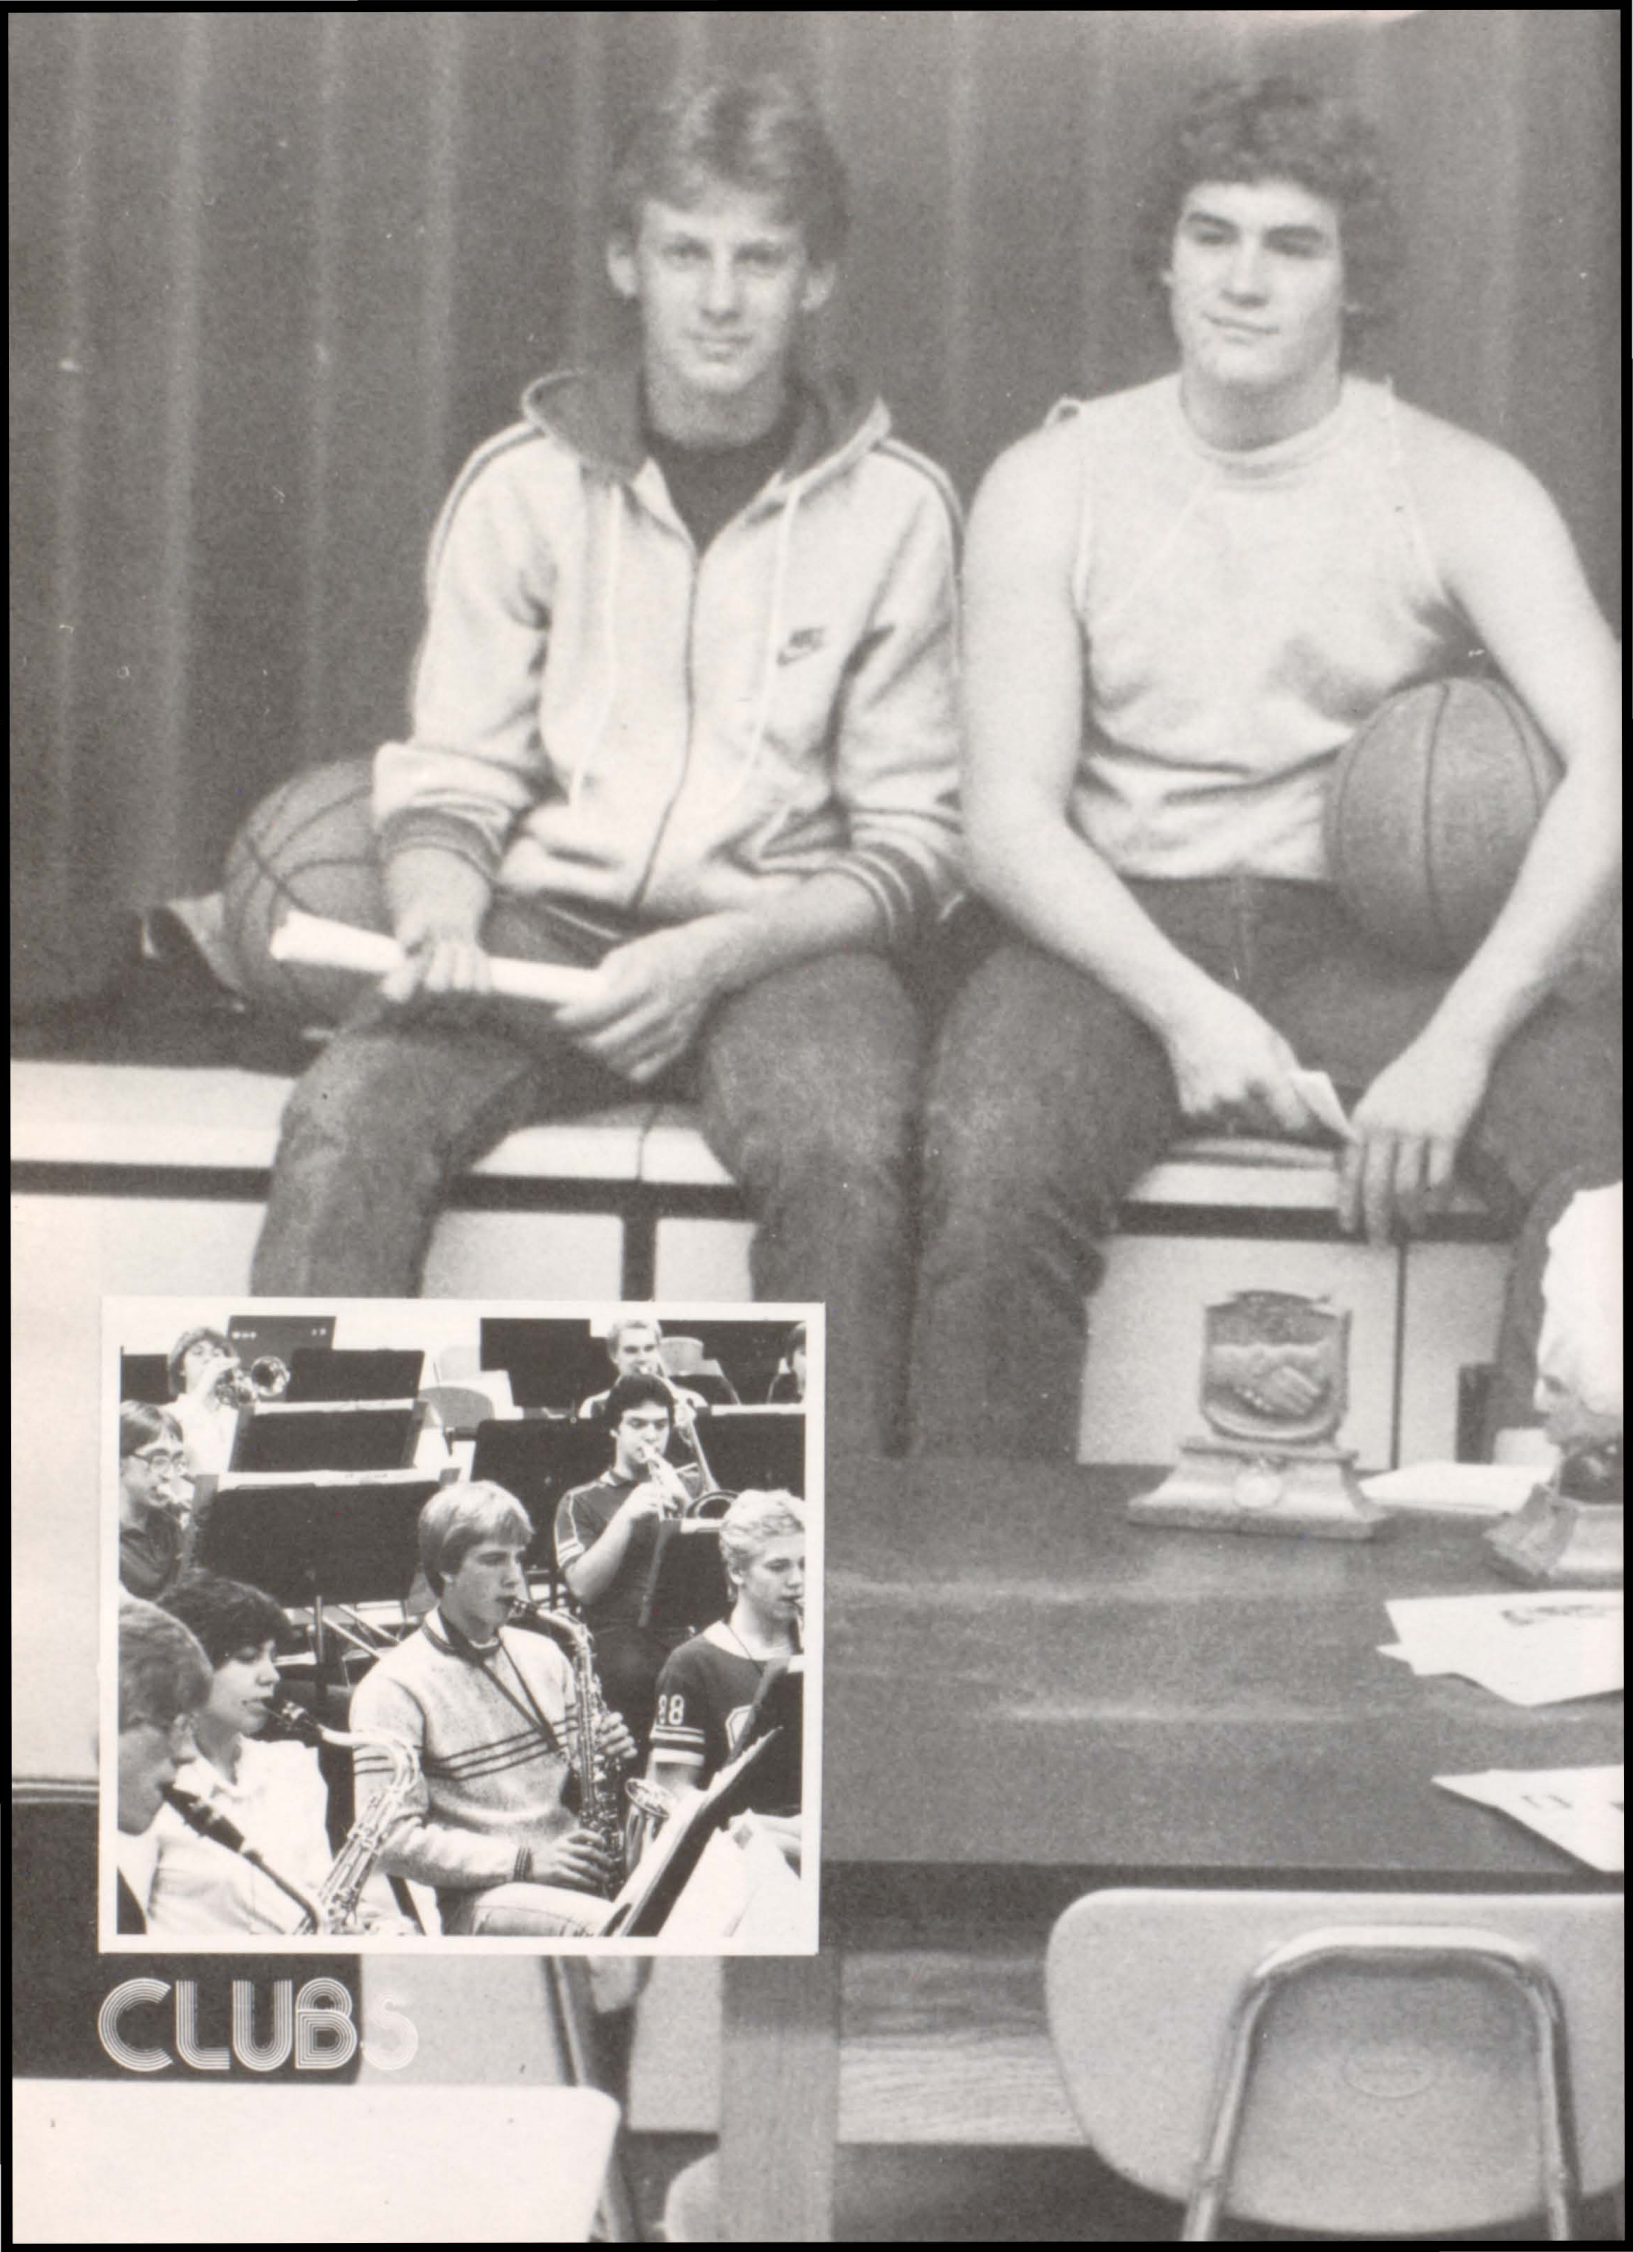

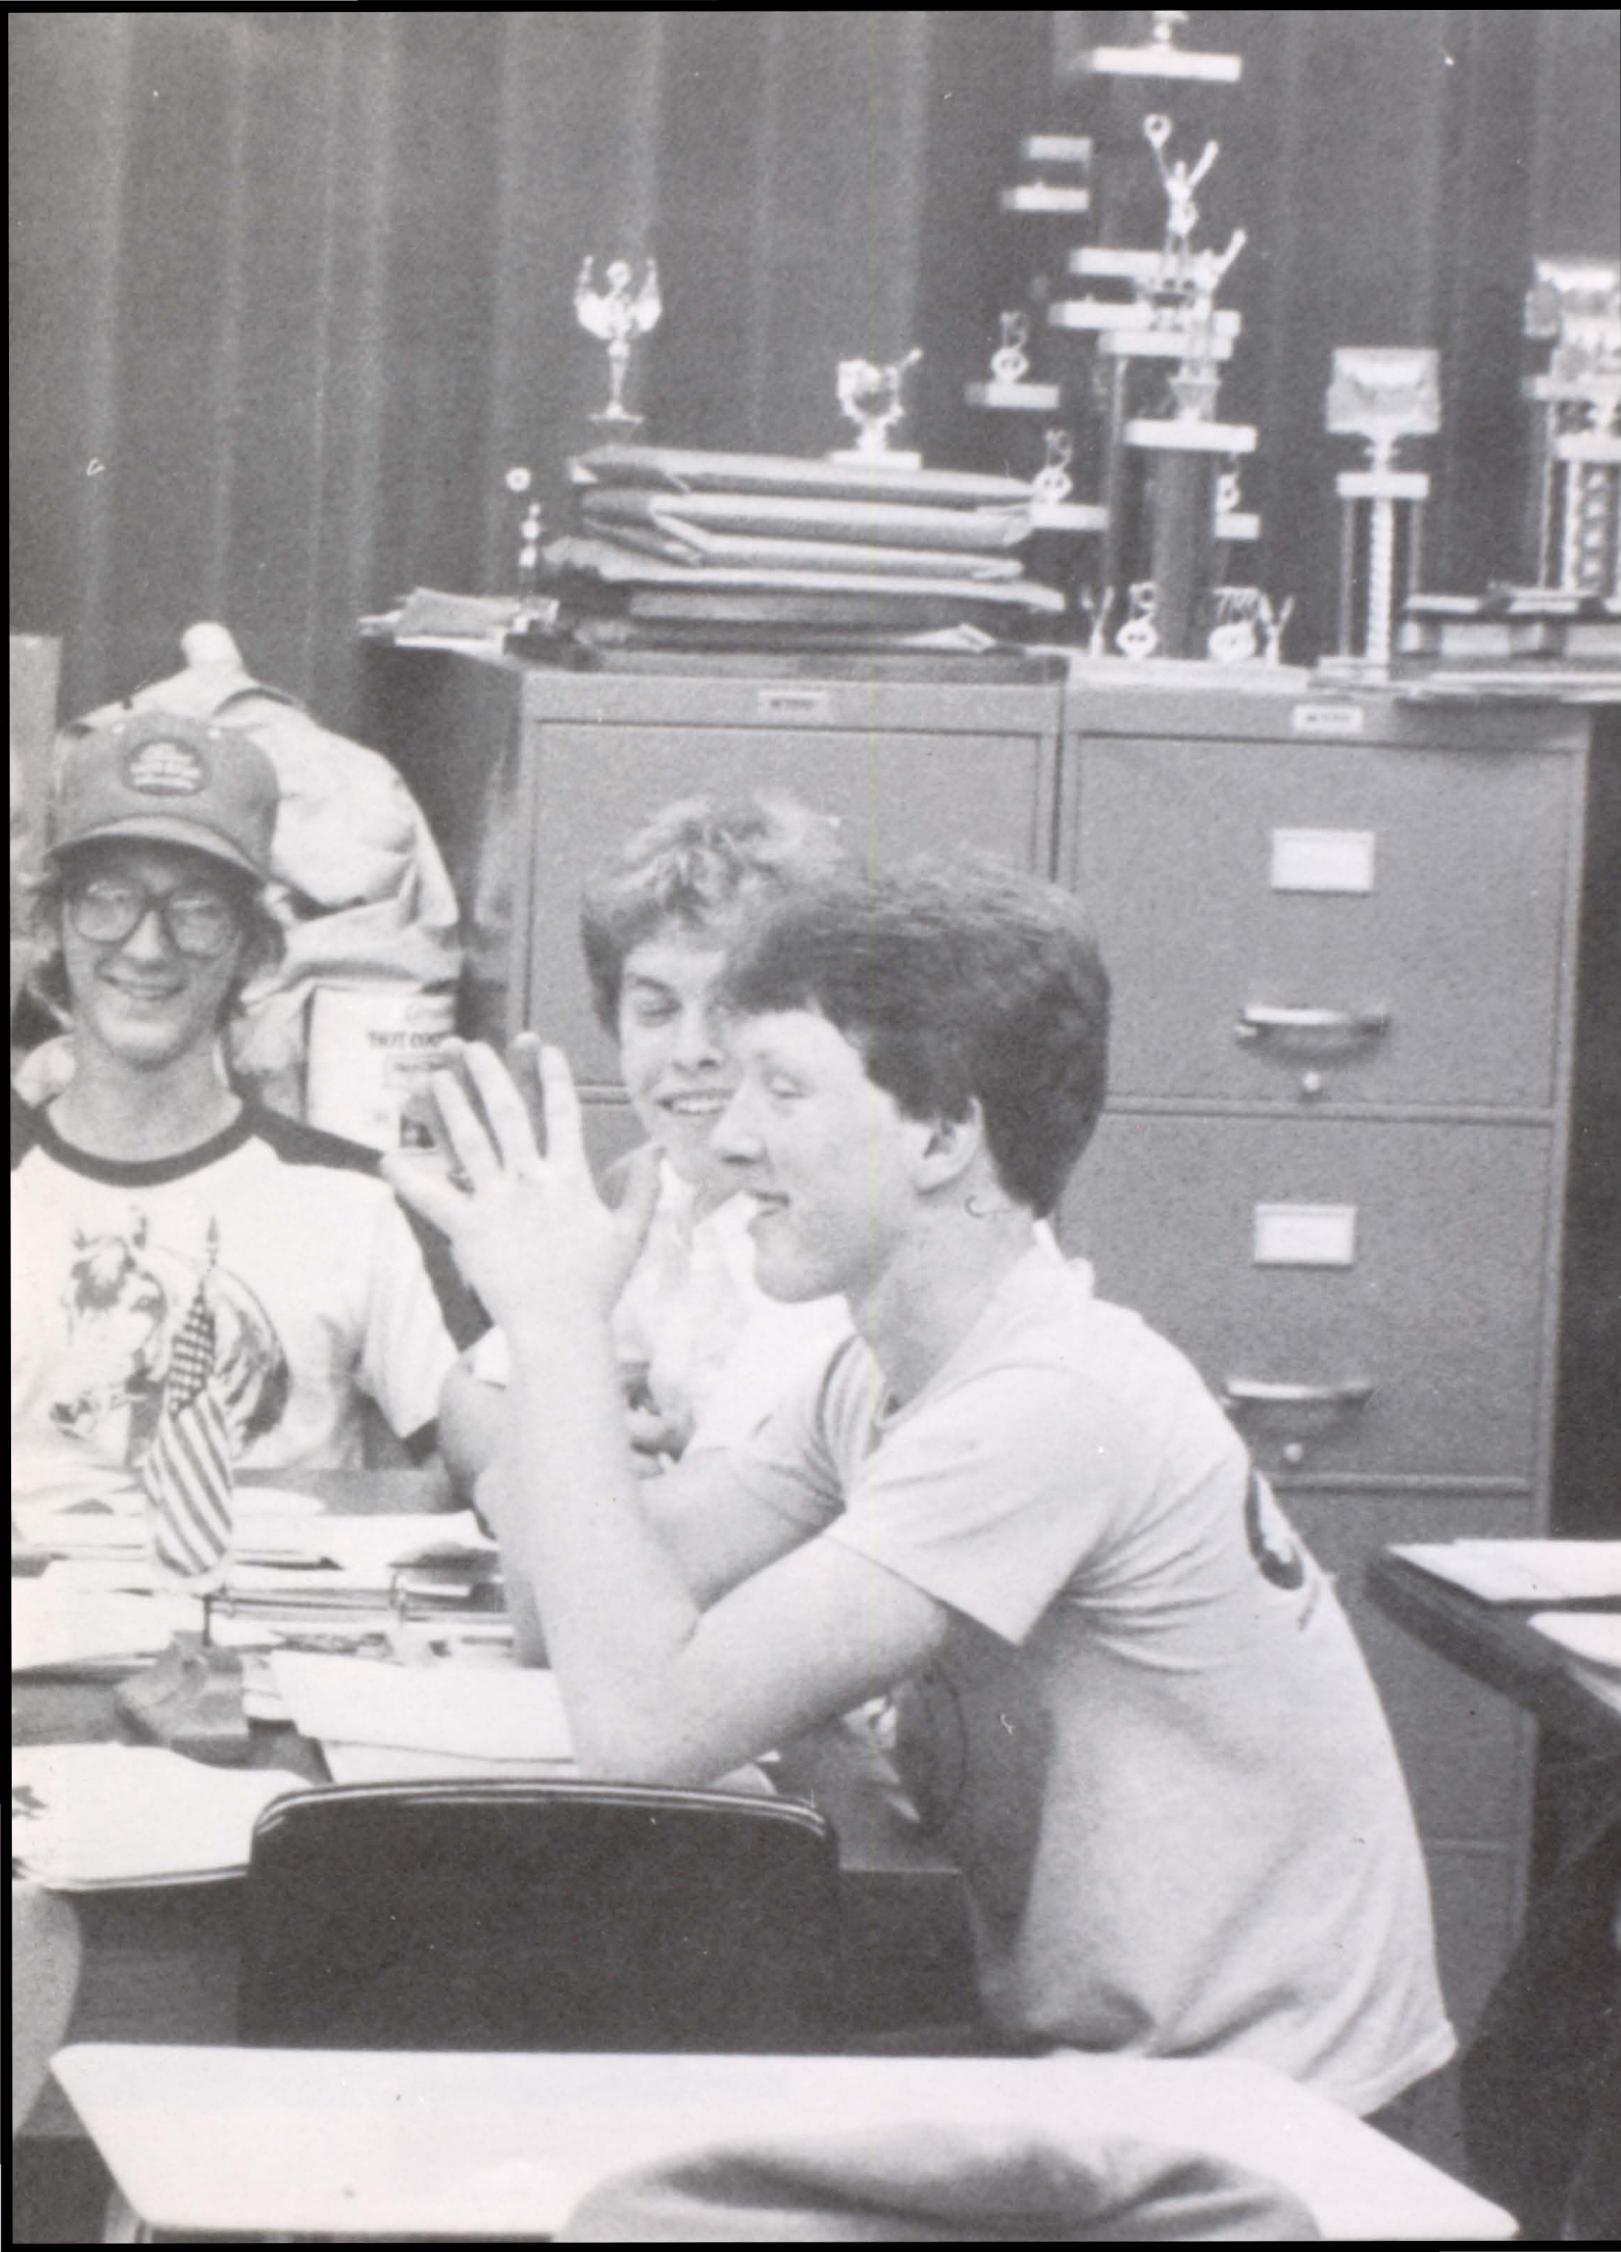

1. Something was happening in the crowd that caught the cheerleaders' eyes. 2. Steph Swihart and Shaila Fraser were cheering for the home team. 3. Varsity Cheerleaders showed their support during a time out. 4. The Freshmen Cheerleading squad showed their strength.

The Making of a Legend

The Yearbook Staff had fun this year while gaining valuable experience in photography, layout and team work. The staff had a Christmas party and an end of the year banquet honoring seniors and welcoming next year's new staffers. Many friendships were formed during the year.

1. Tatia Littleton seemed hypnotized by the topic of discussion. 3. Mrs. J. Rossi and John Dixon conducted one of the club's monthly meetings.

Seniors Share Athletic Ability

The Senior Leaders were a group of seniors who all had an interest in athletics. Most members had several gym classes a day. There were many duties involved with being a Senior Leader. These duties included setting up equipment, taking attendance and leading exercises. The Senior Leaders played an important role in the gym classes at Wawasee.

Skiers Do It With Style

The Ski Club had a good winter for snow skiing. The members went out to Mt. Wawasee several times. The club had a night for beginning skiers to learn to ski at no charge. Also, club members spent one day helping the handicapped learn to ski. Everyone had a lot of fun out on the slopes.

Students Speak Out

The Speech Club was a new club formed at Wawasee this year. The members wrote their own speeches and then debated them in area competitions. Many awards were given to the members. The club grew as the year progressed and everyone involved had a good time.

Warrior T.V. Guide

This year's Pride Committee worked very hard in putting together our homecoming. The homecoming theme this year was "Warrior T.V. Guide". The members also sponsored the bonfire and the fall fling. Each member was elected by his class. Everyone did a fine job and had a successful year.

Farmers of the Future

Agriculture was an interest all FFA students shared. The Future Farmers of America participated in many soil and livestock judging contests. In October FFA members came home with a first place in a soil judging contest. Also they put on a kiddie tractor pull contest during the Winter Carnival. This year's FFA club kept very busy and extended their knowledge of agriculture.

Jazz Band Peps Up

The Jazz Band and the Pep Band were combined for the first time at Wawasee High School this year. The selected group of musicians, under the direction of Mr. David Blackwell, performed for school and social events such as a concert at the Syracuse American Legion and participated in a contest in Fort Wayne. Everyone learned a little more about music and had a good time doing it.

Advisors Improve Communications

Advisors were students selected from their class councils and faculty Department Chairmen. They worked on problems concerning the students and their academic careers at Wawasee. Student-teacher relations were helped through Advisors Council.

1. Students serving on Advisors Council were Row 1: Todd Roberts, John Evans, Mark Keener, Mark Walker; Row 2: Mr. T. Iden, Mr. D. Kesler, Dr. H. Hull, Mr. M. Neff, Mr. R. Corson; Row 3: Mrs. M. EXIT

TOGETHER

As we walk together let us not look over our shoulders,
but only ahead
to our future.
Let us not forget
the past,
but only push it aside.
So that we may live for today and tomorrow . . .
together

*Laura Meditch
